

Active Members

All

Gender

All

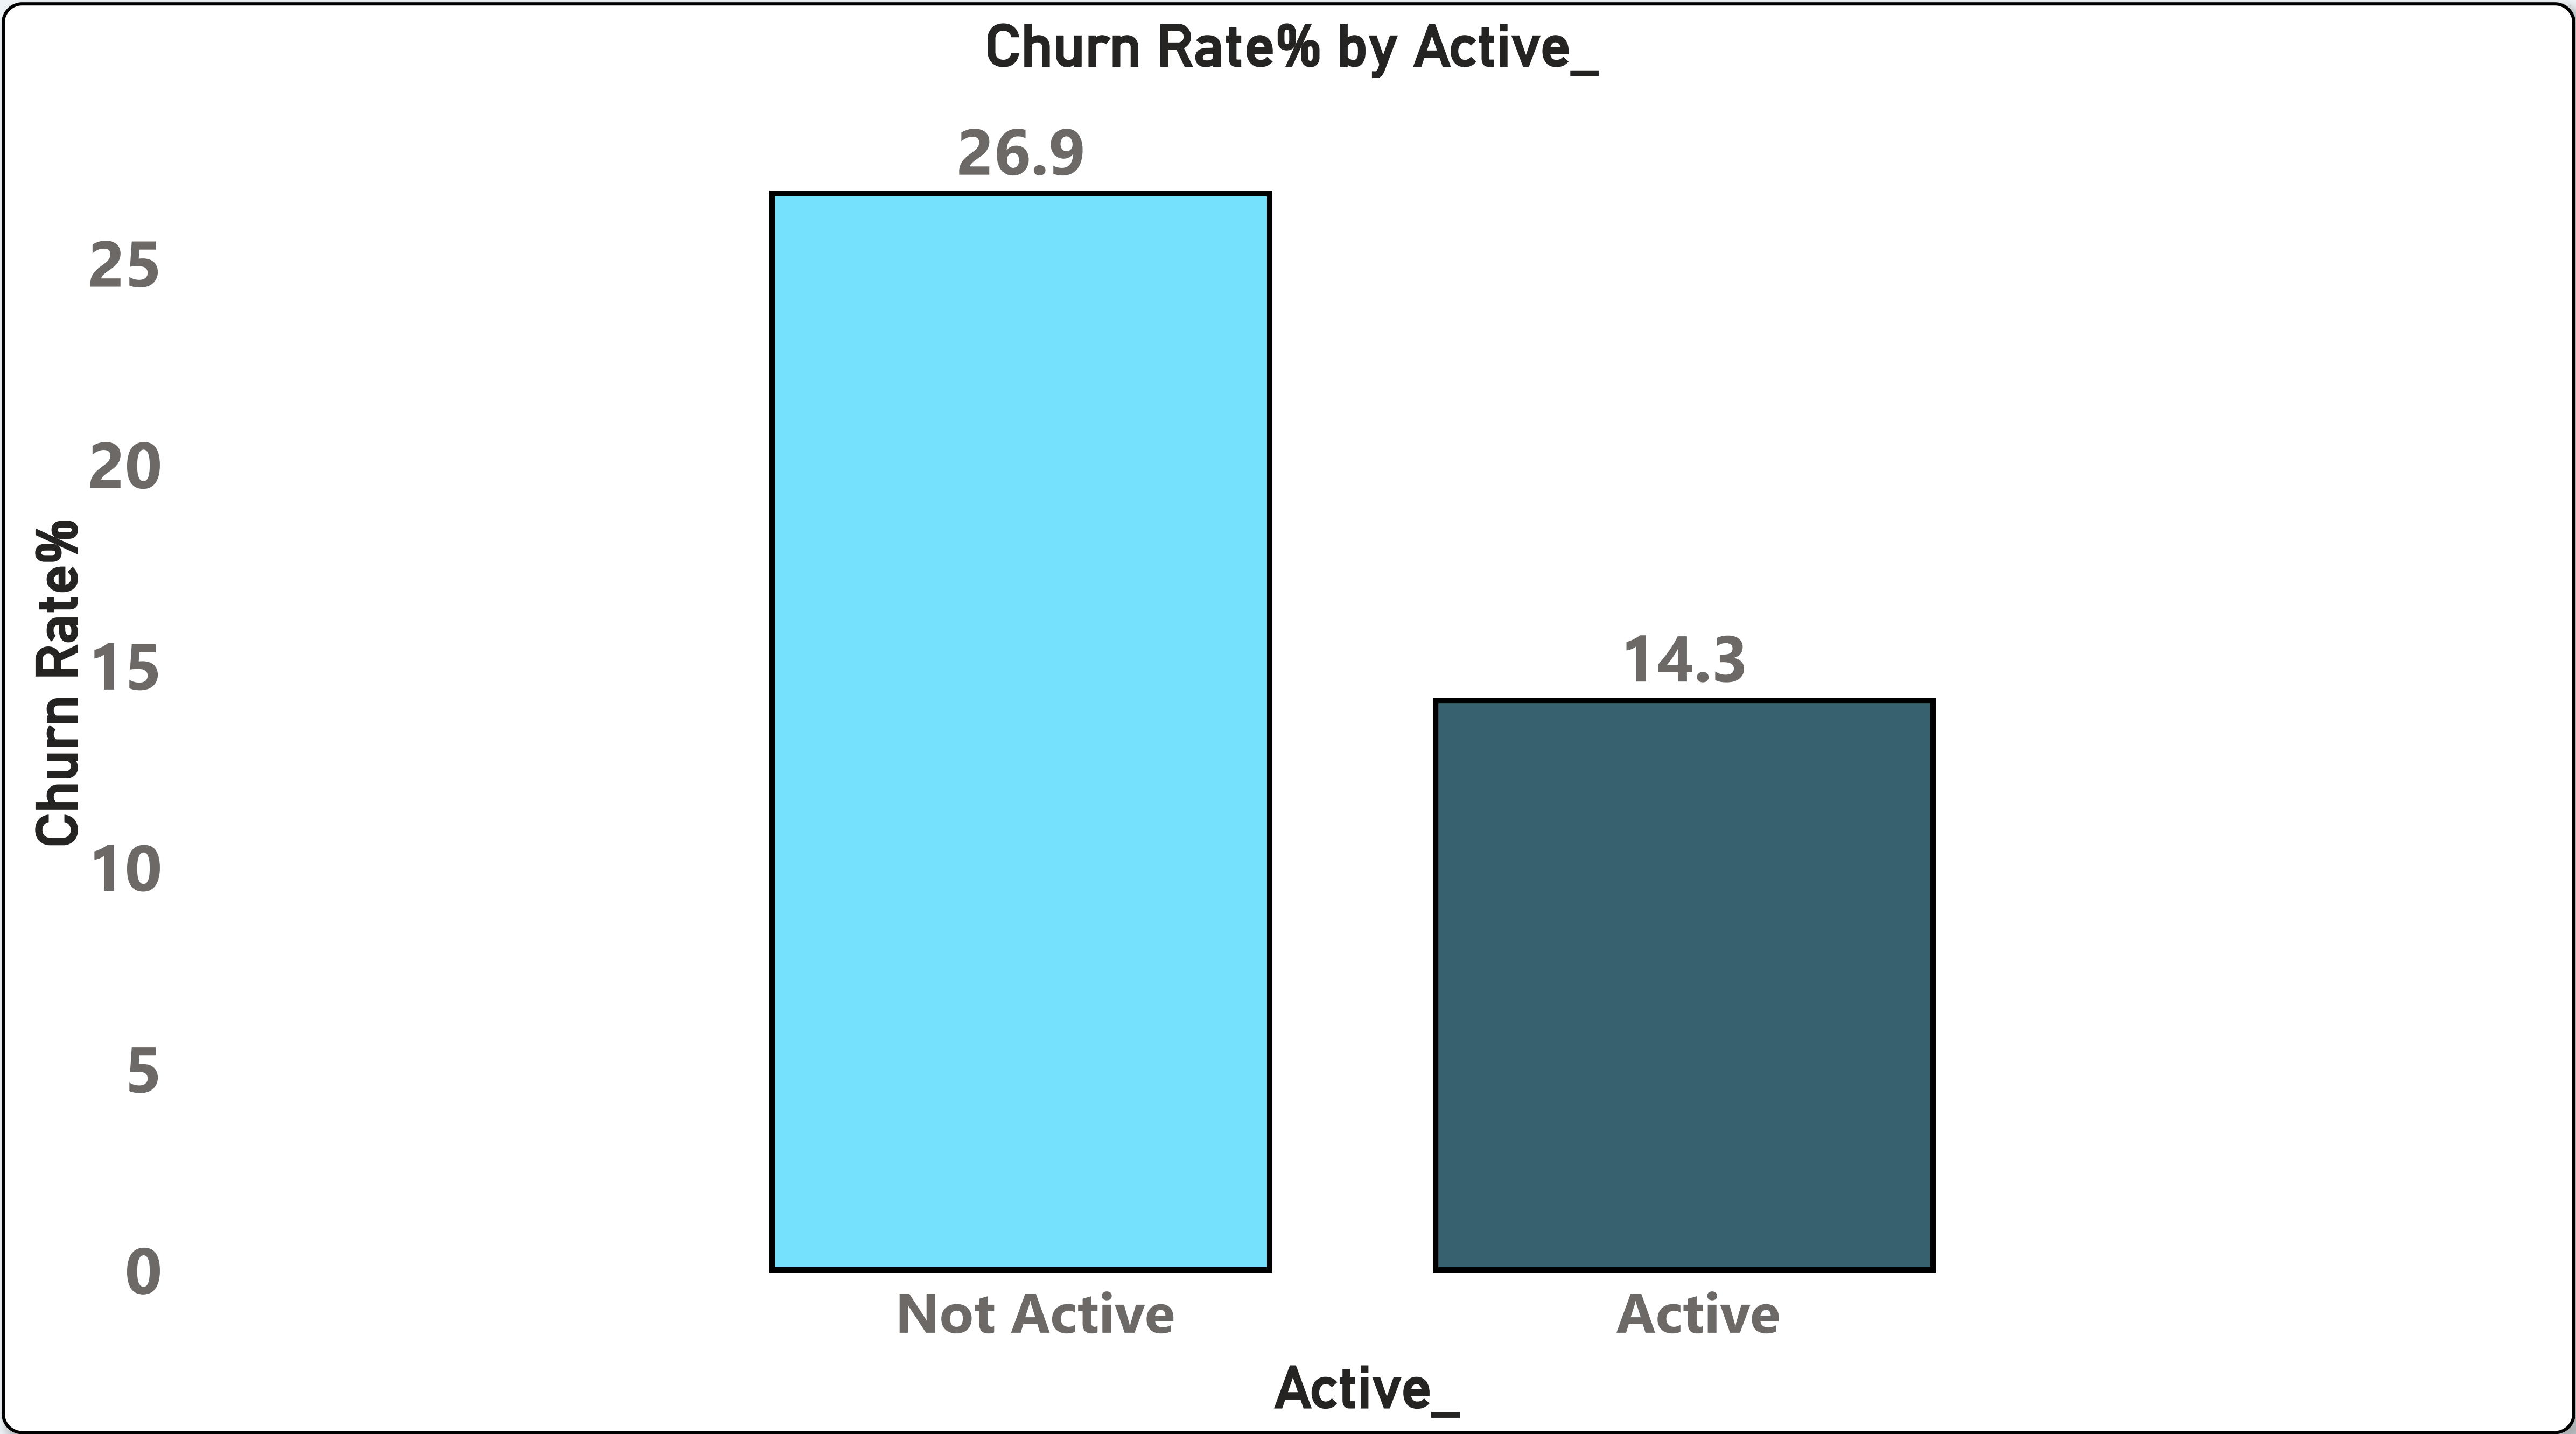

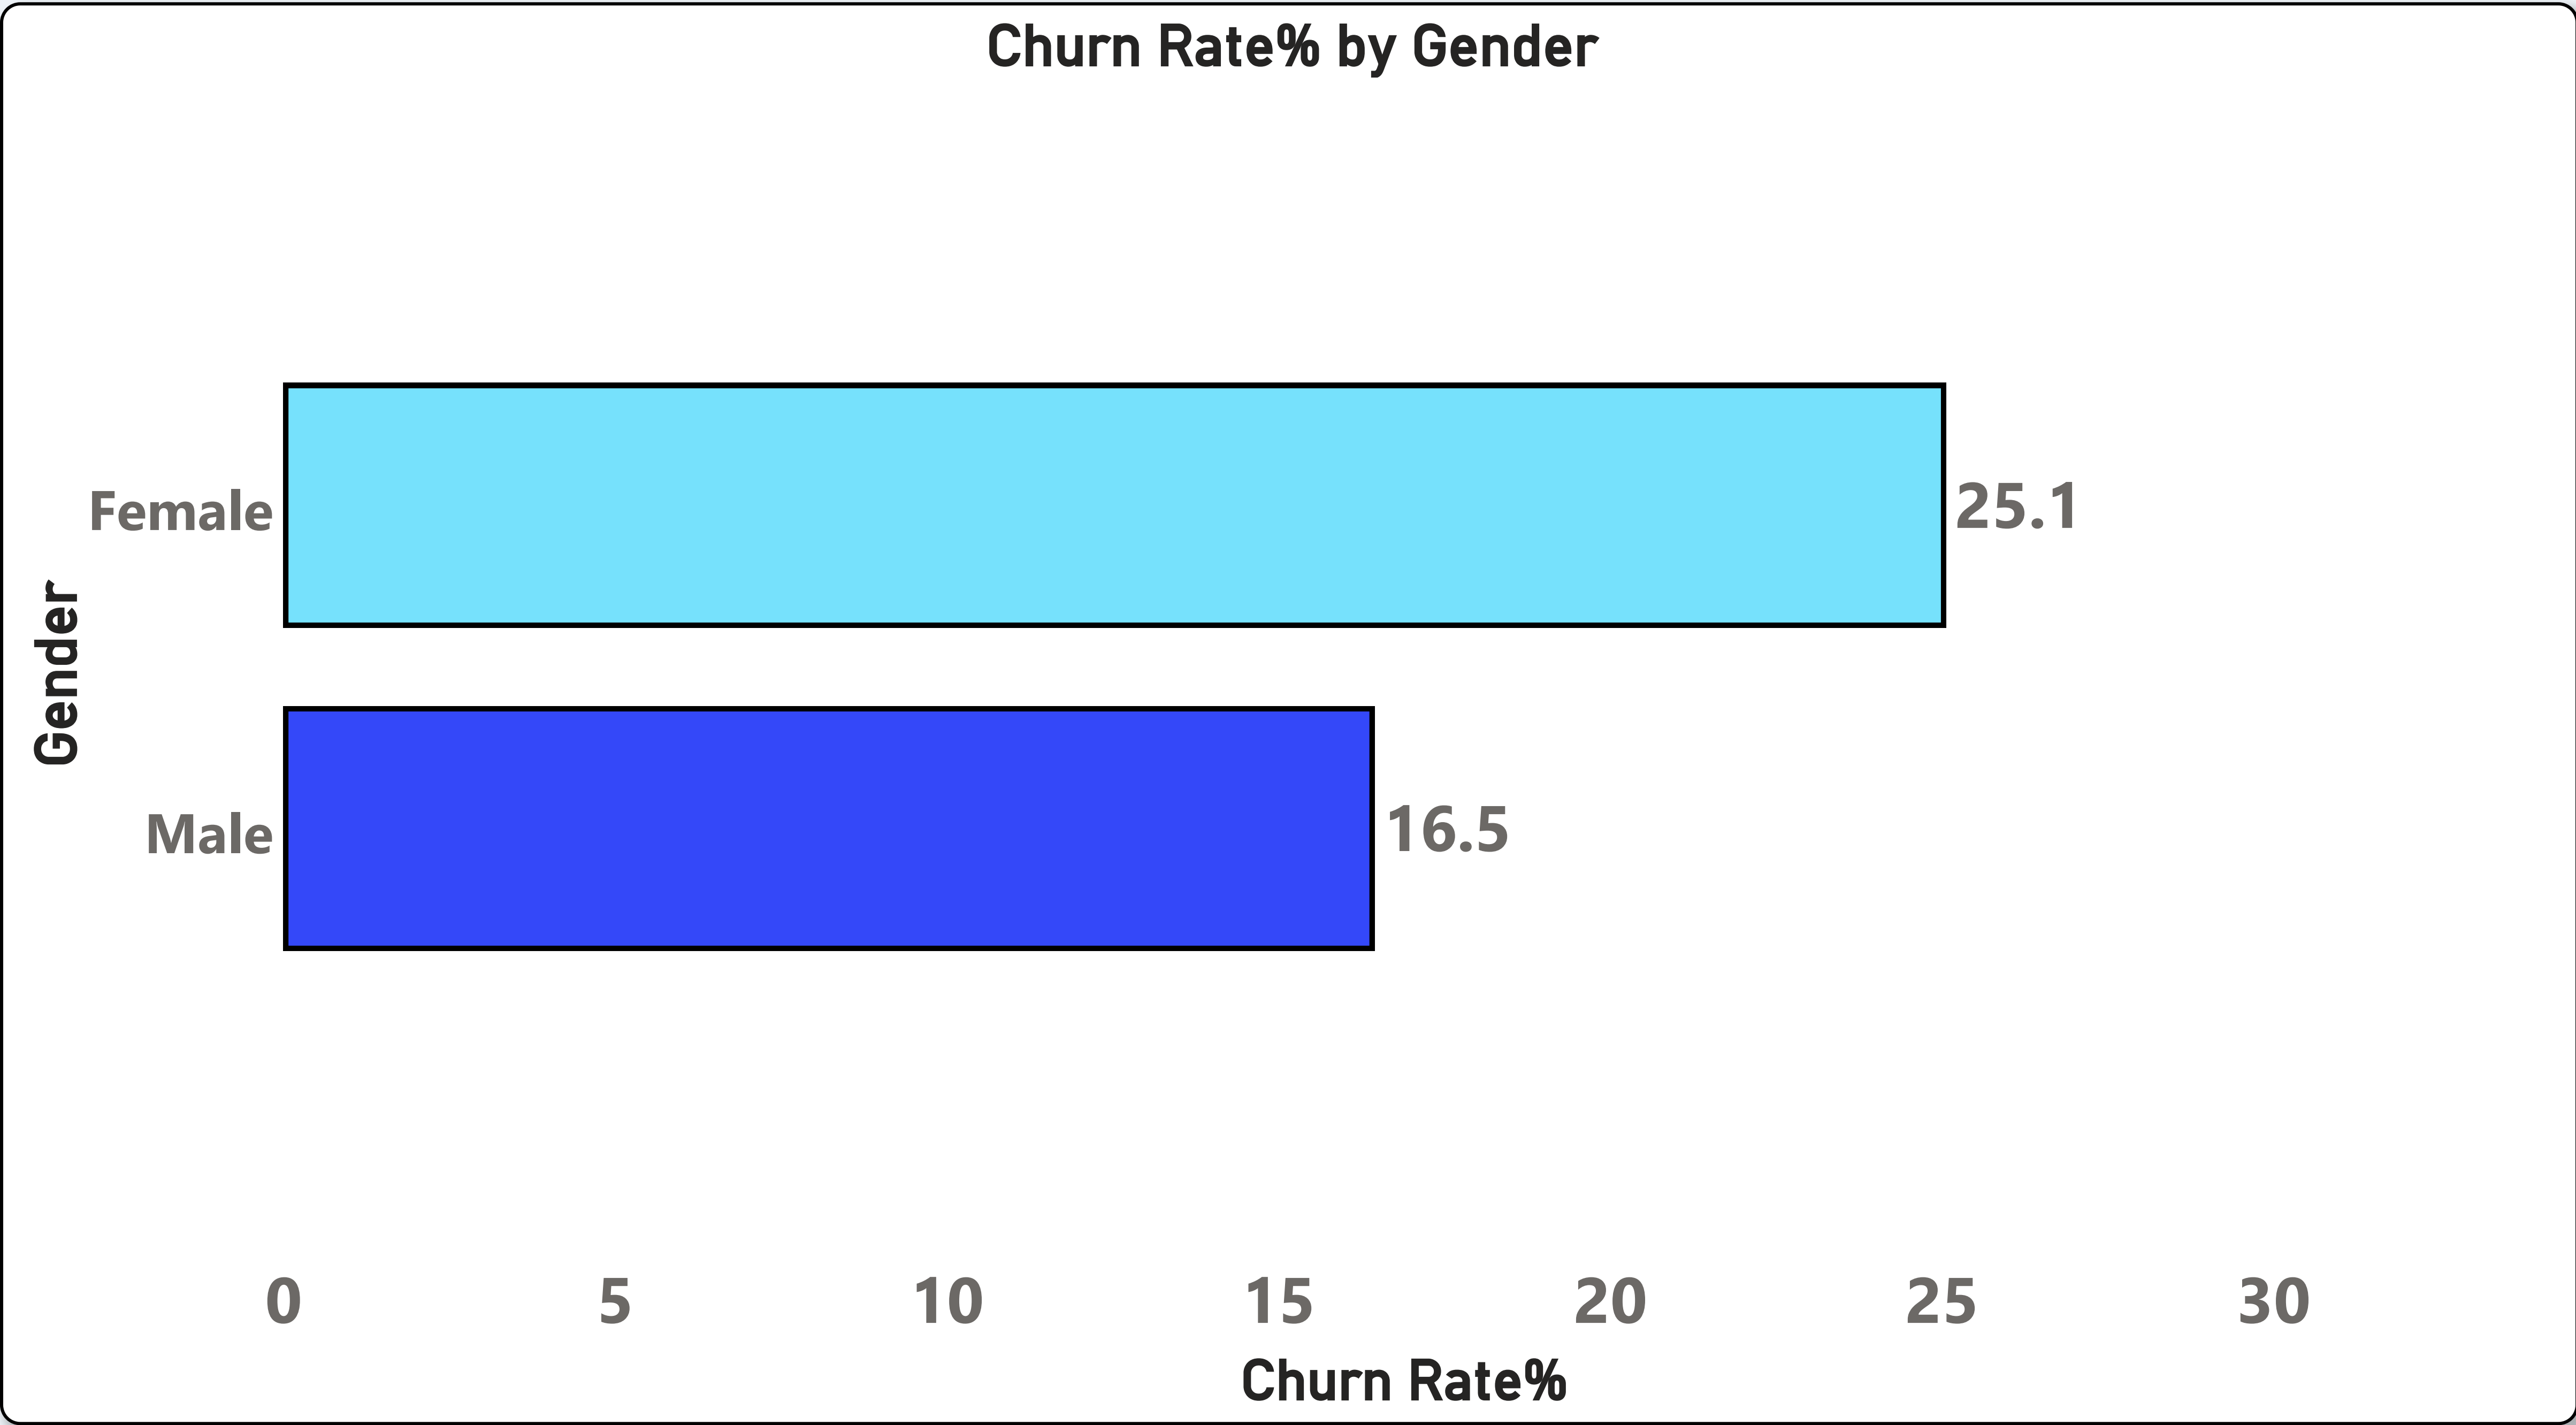

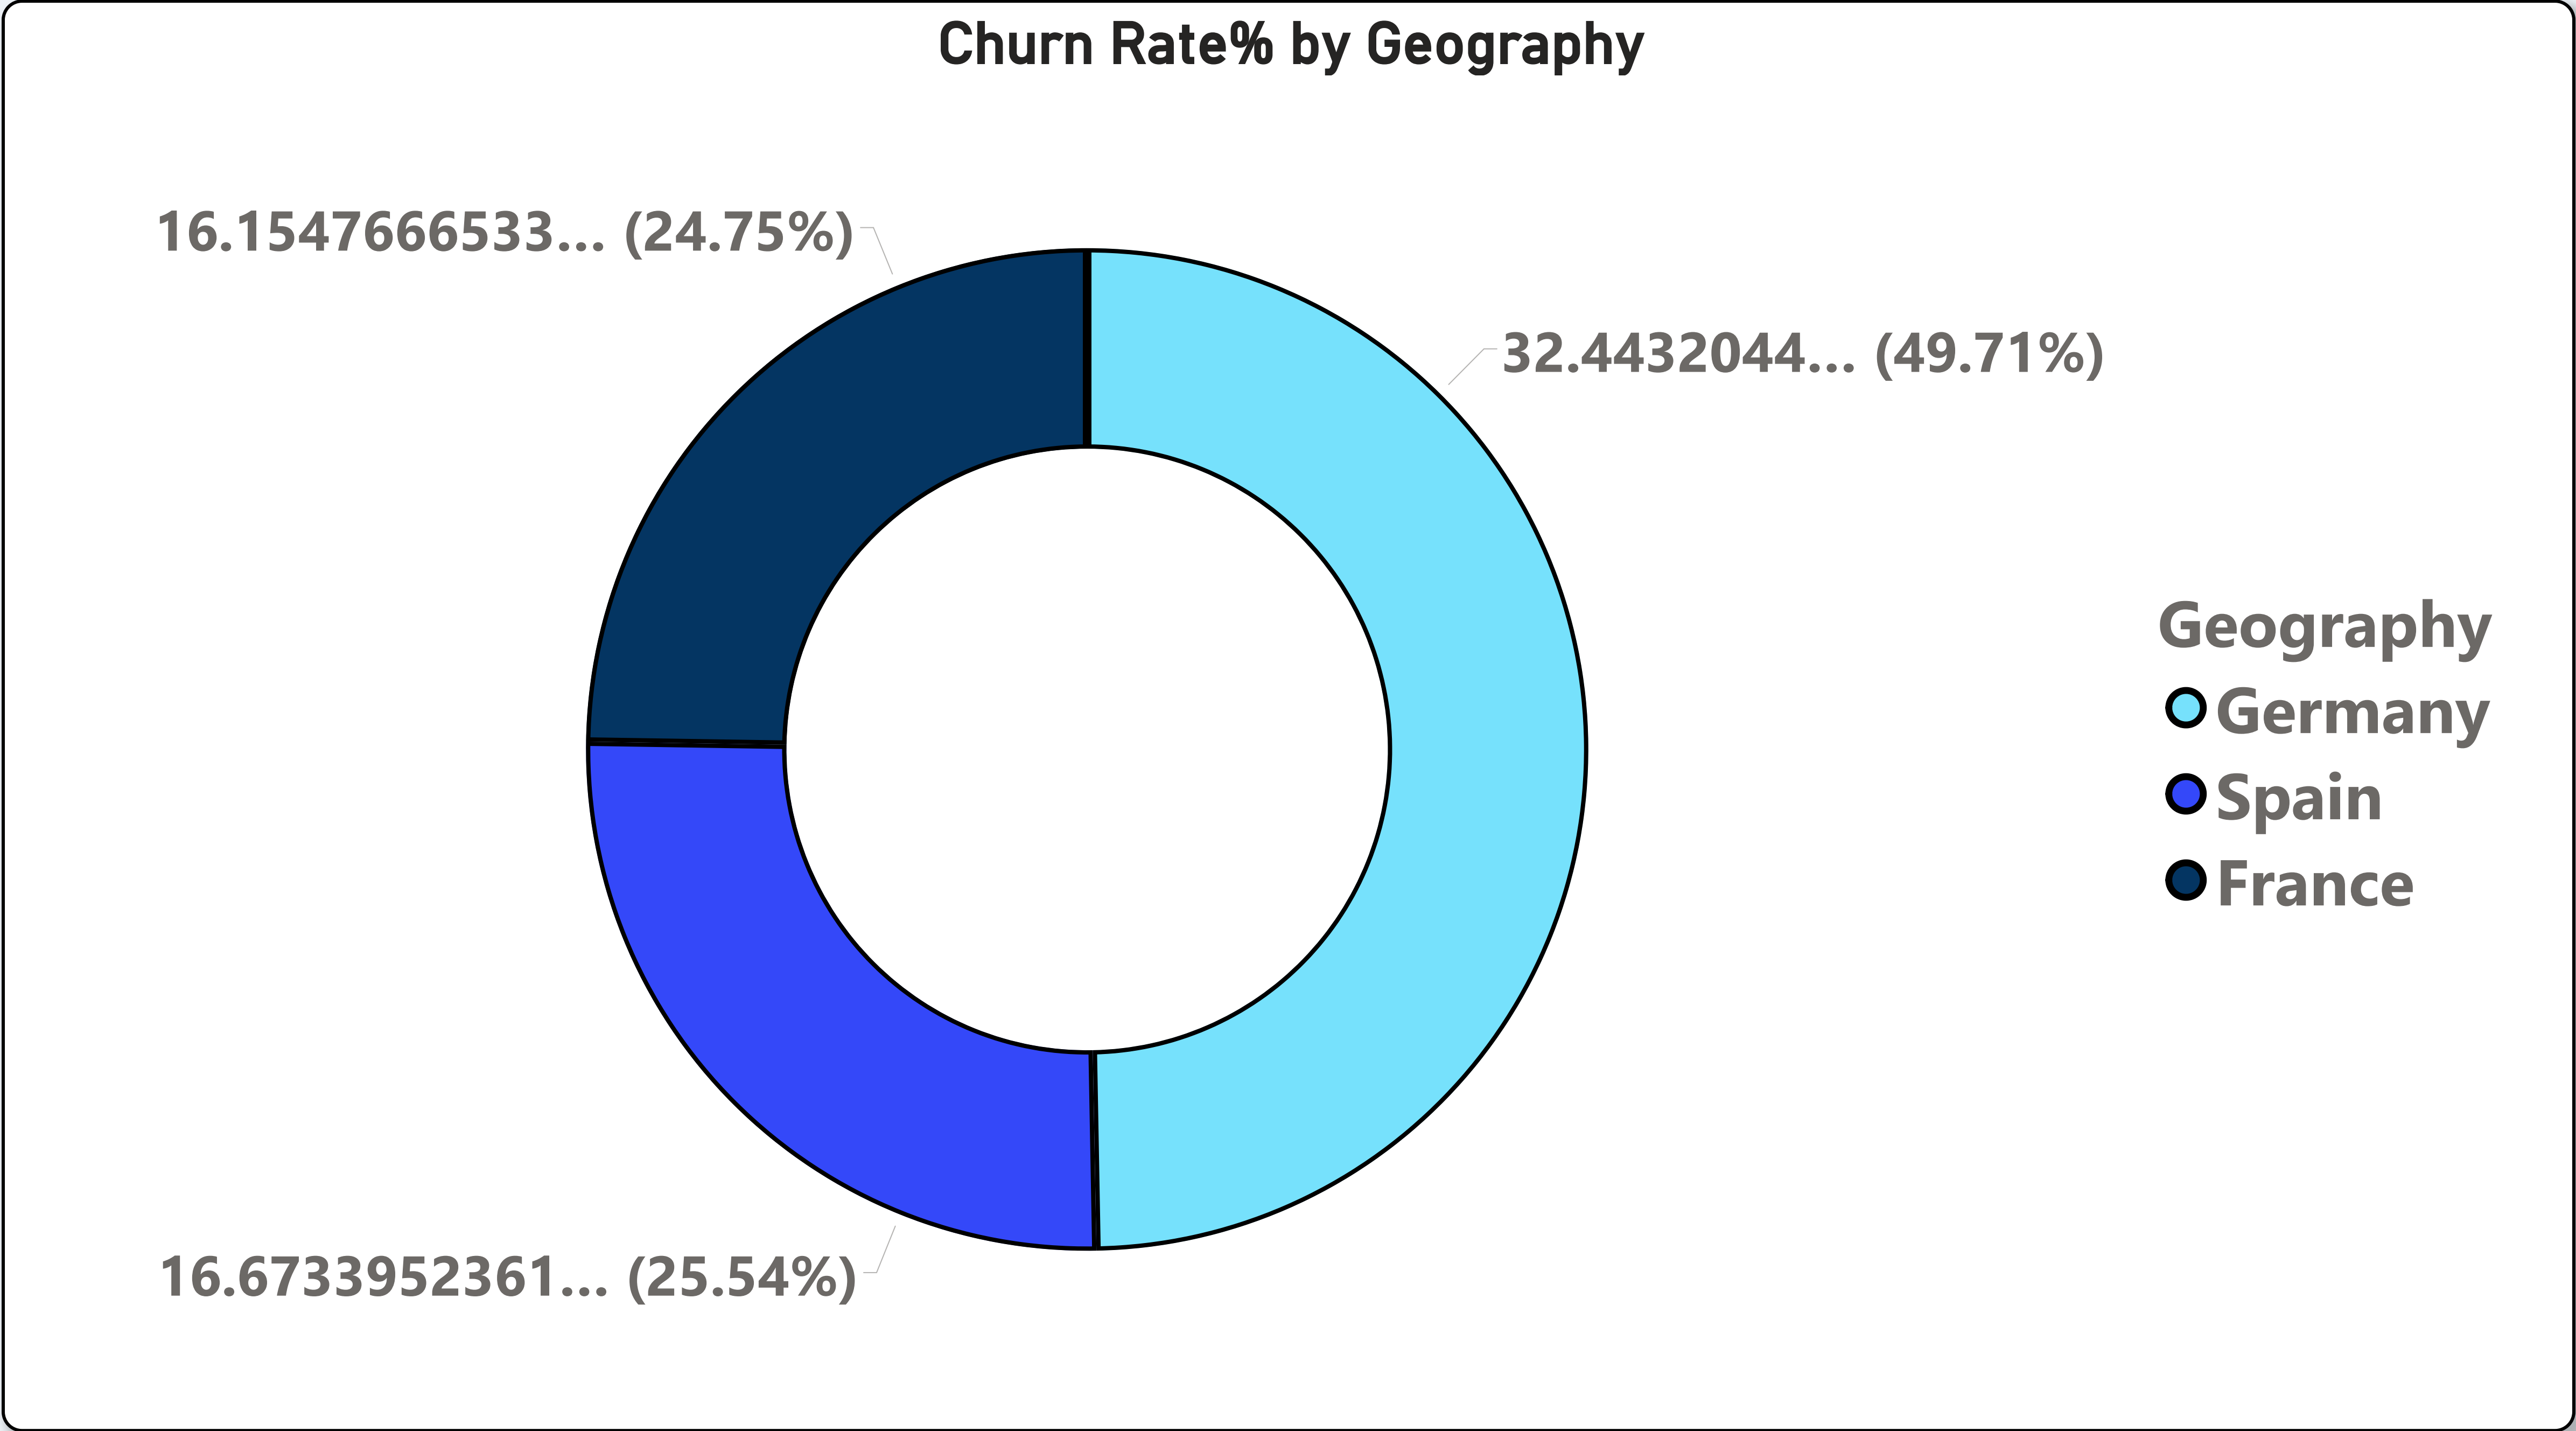

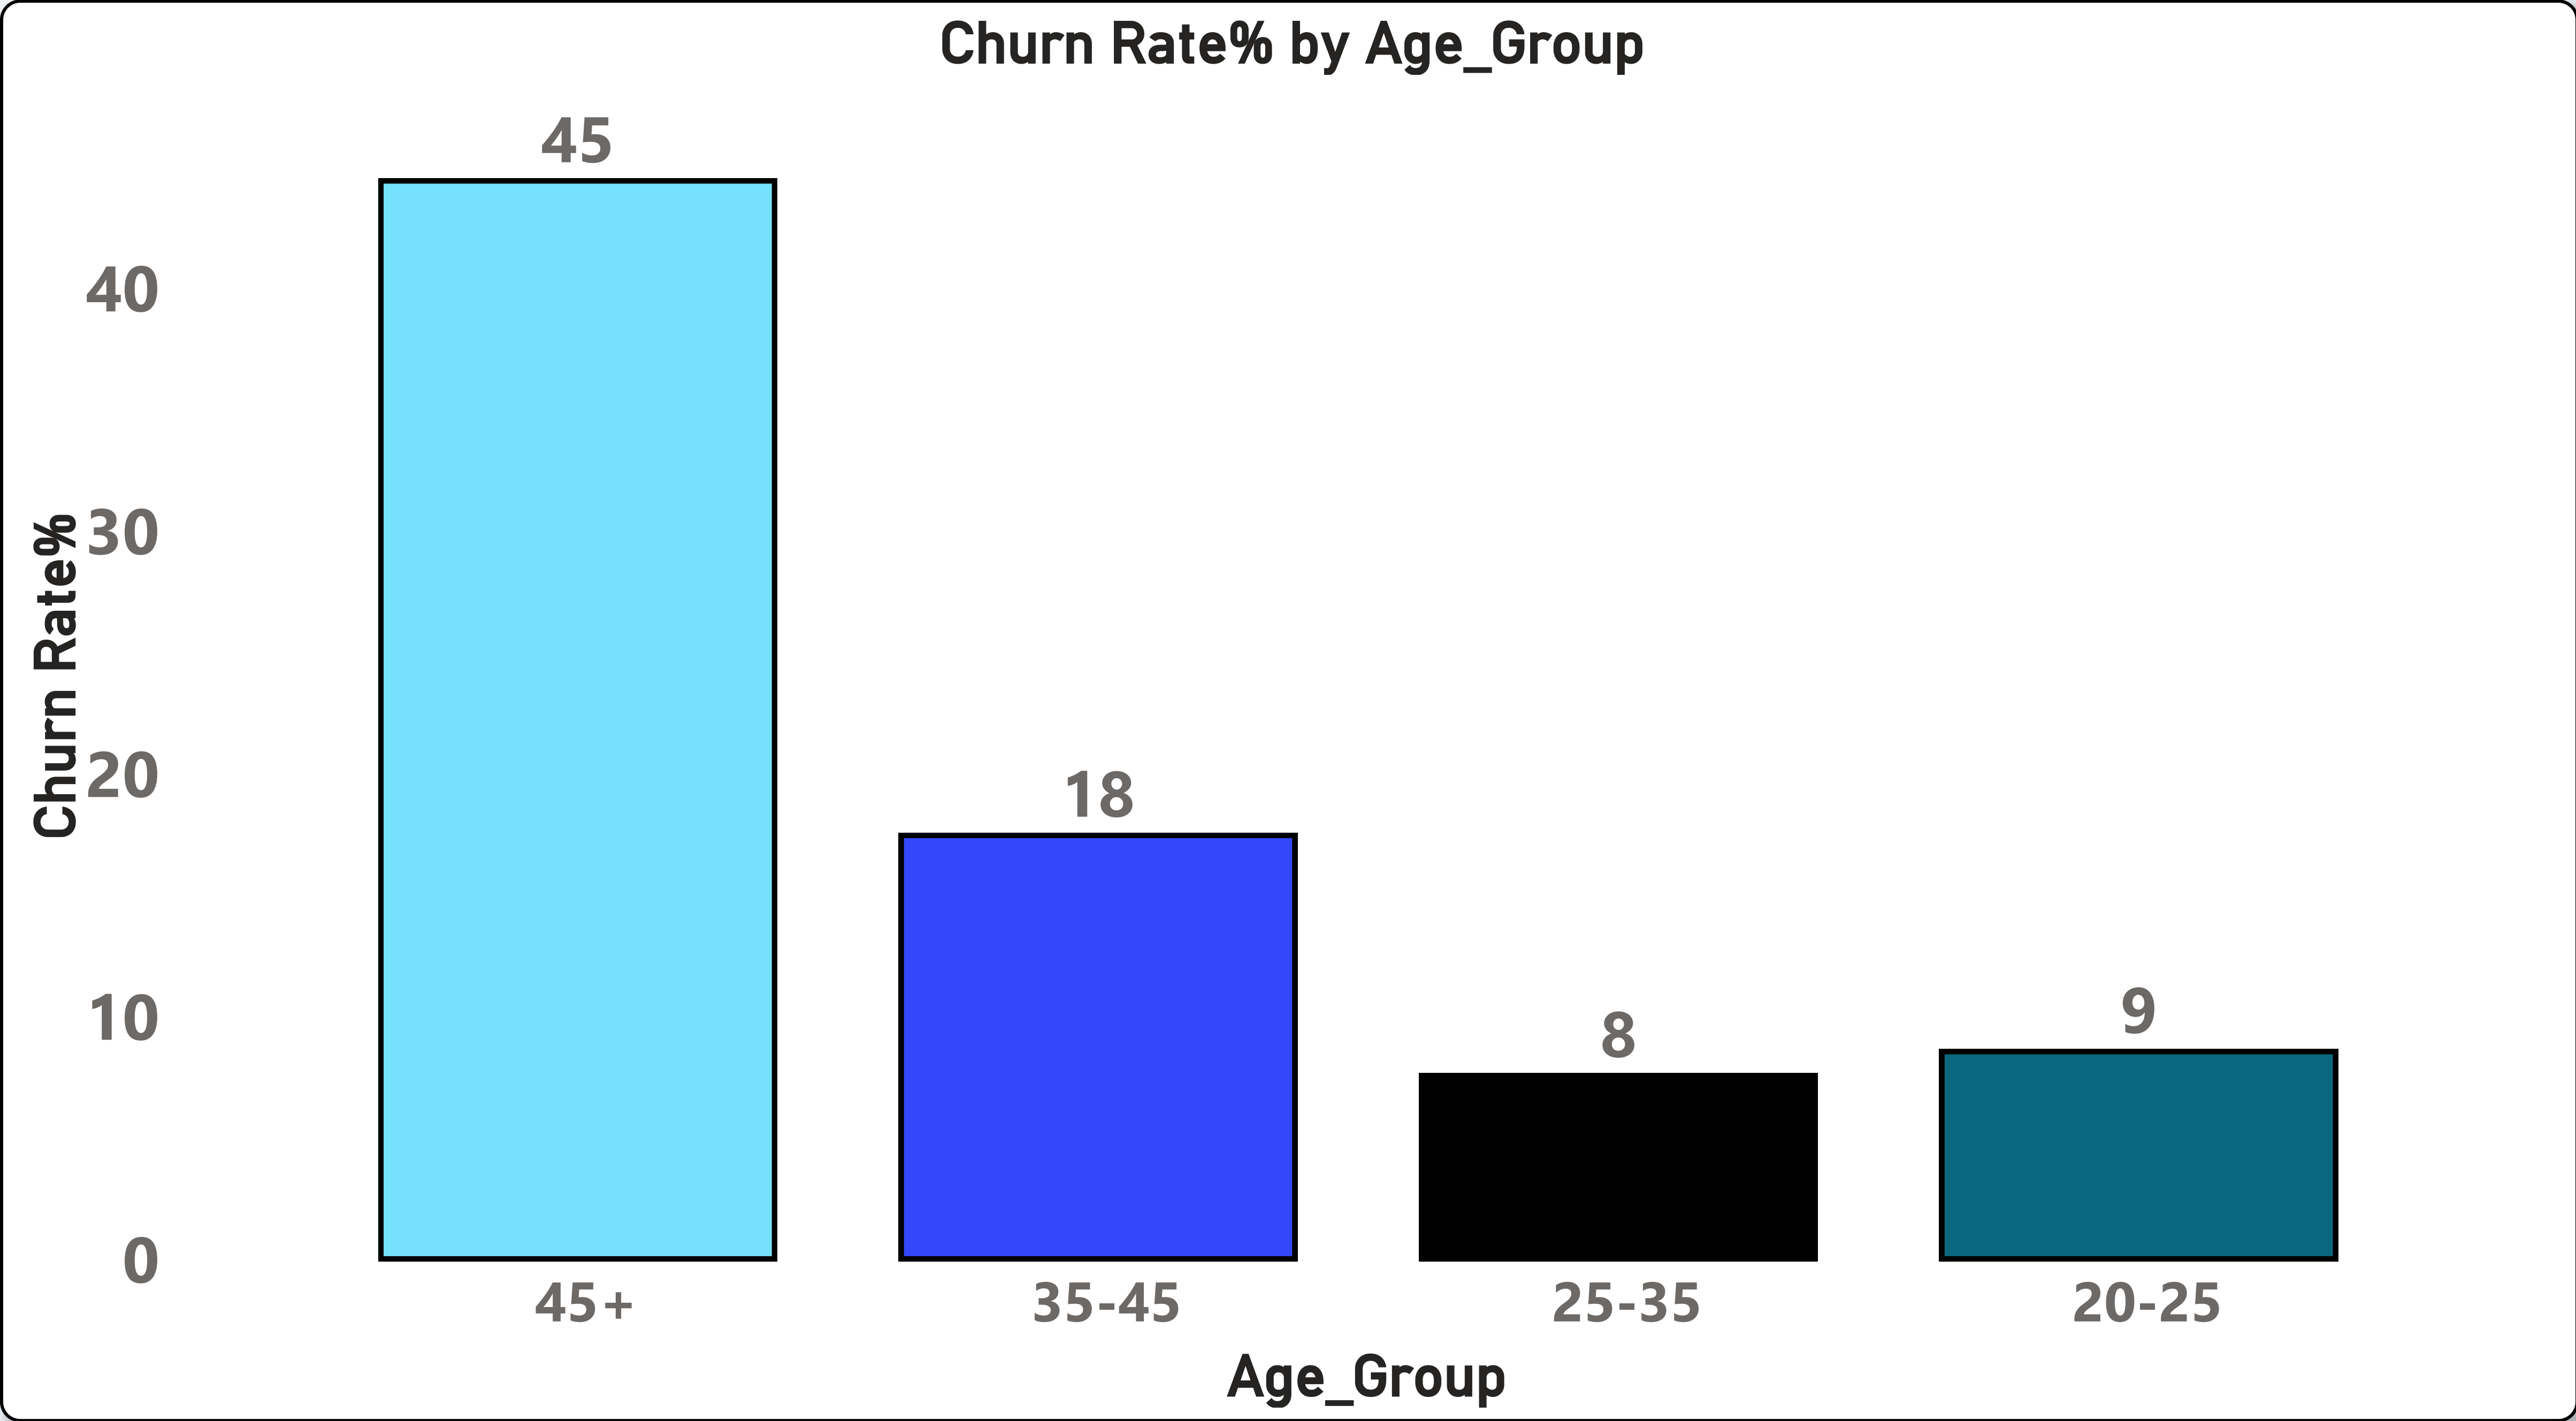

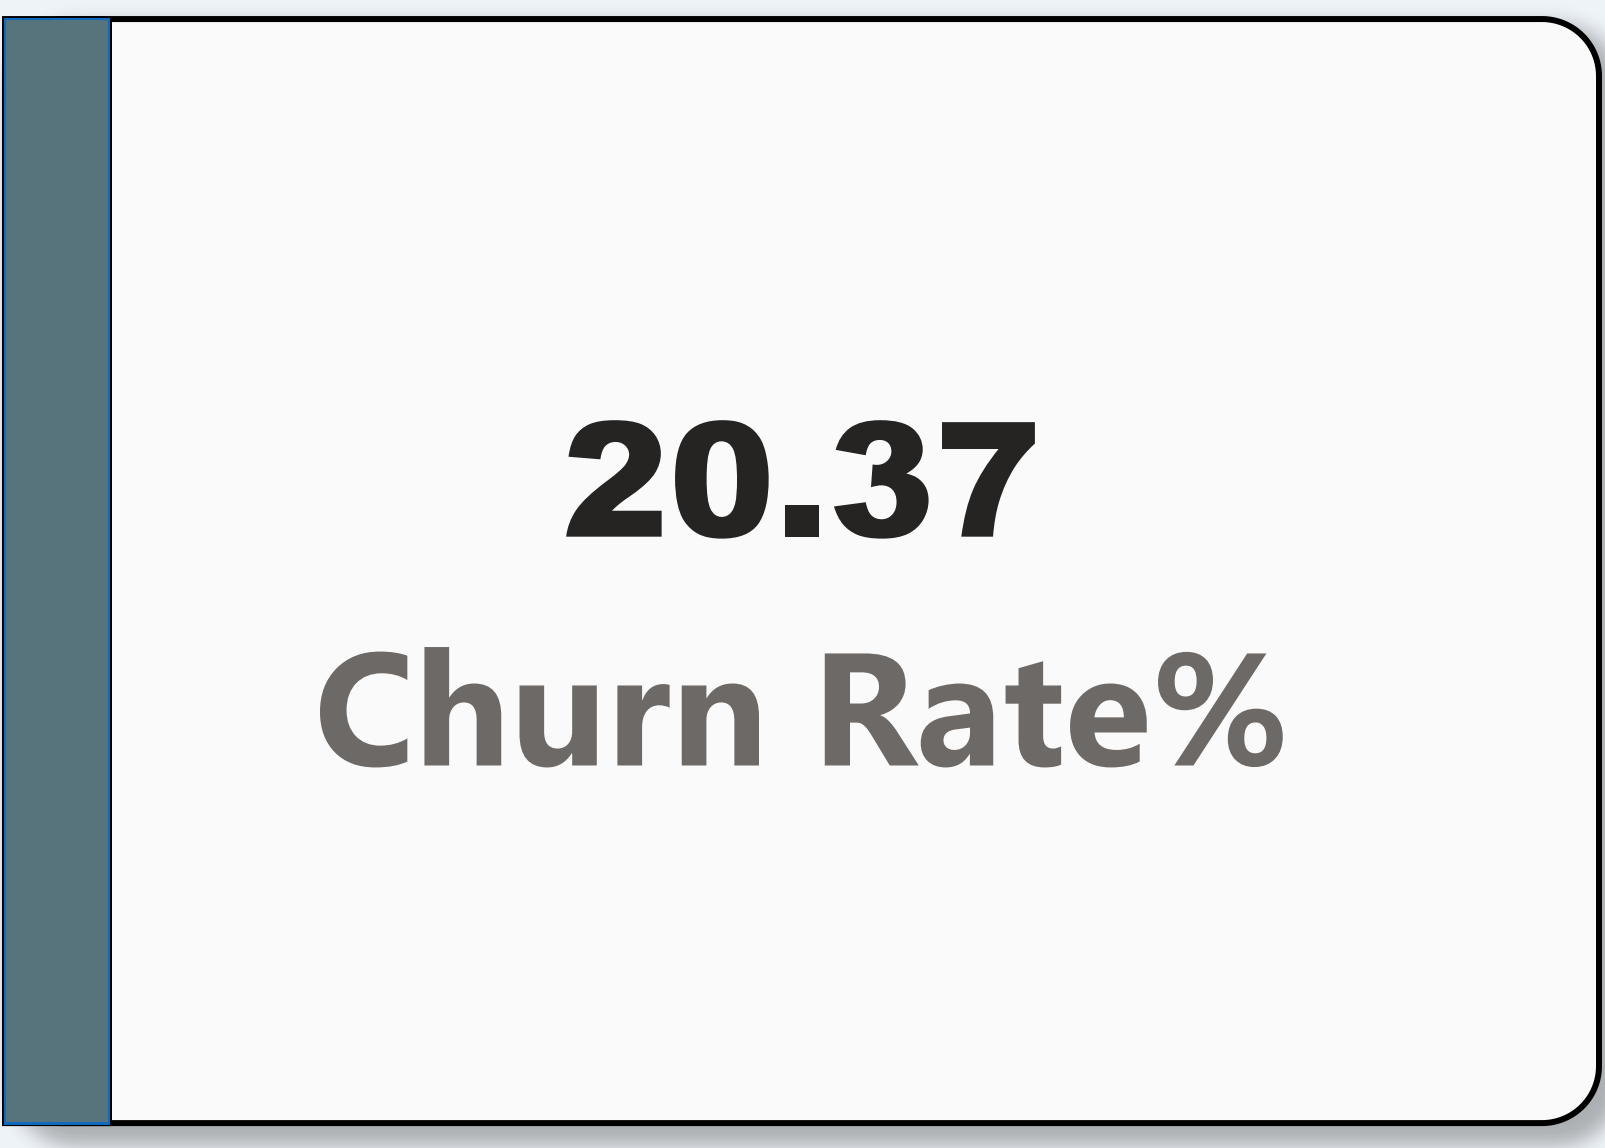

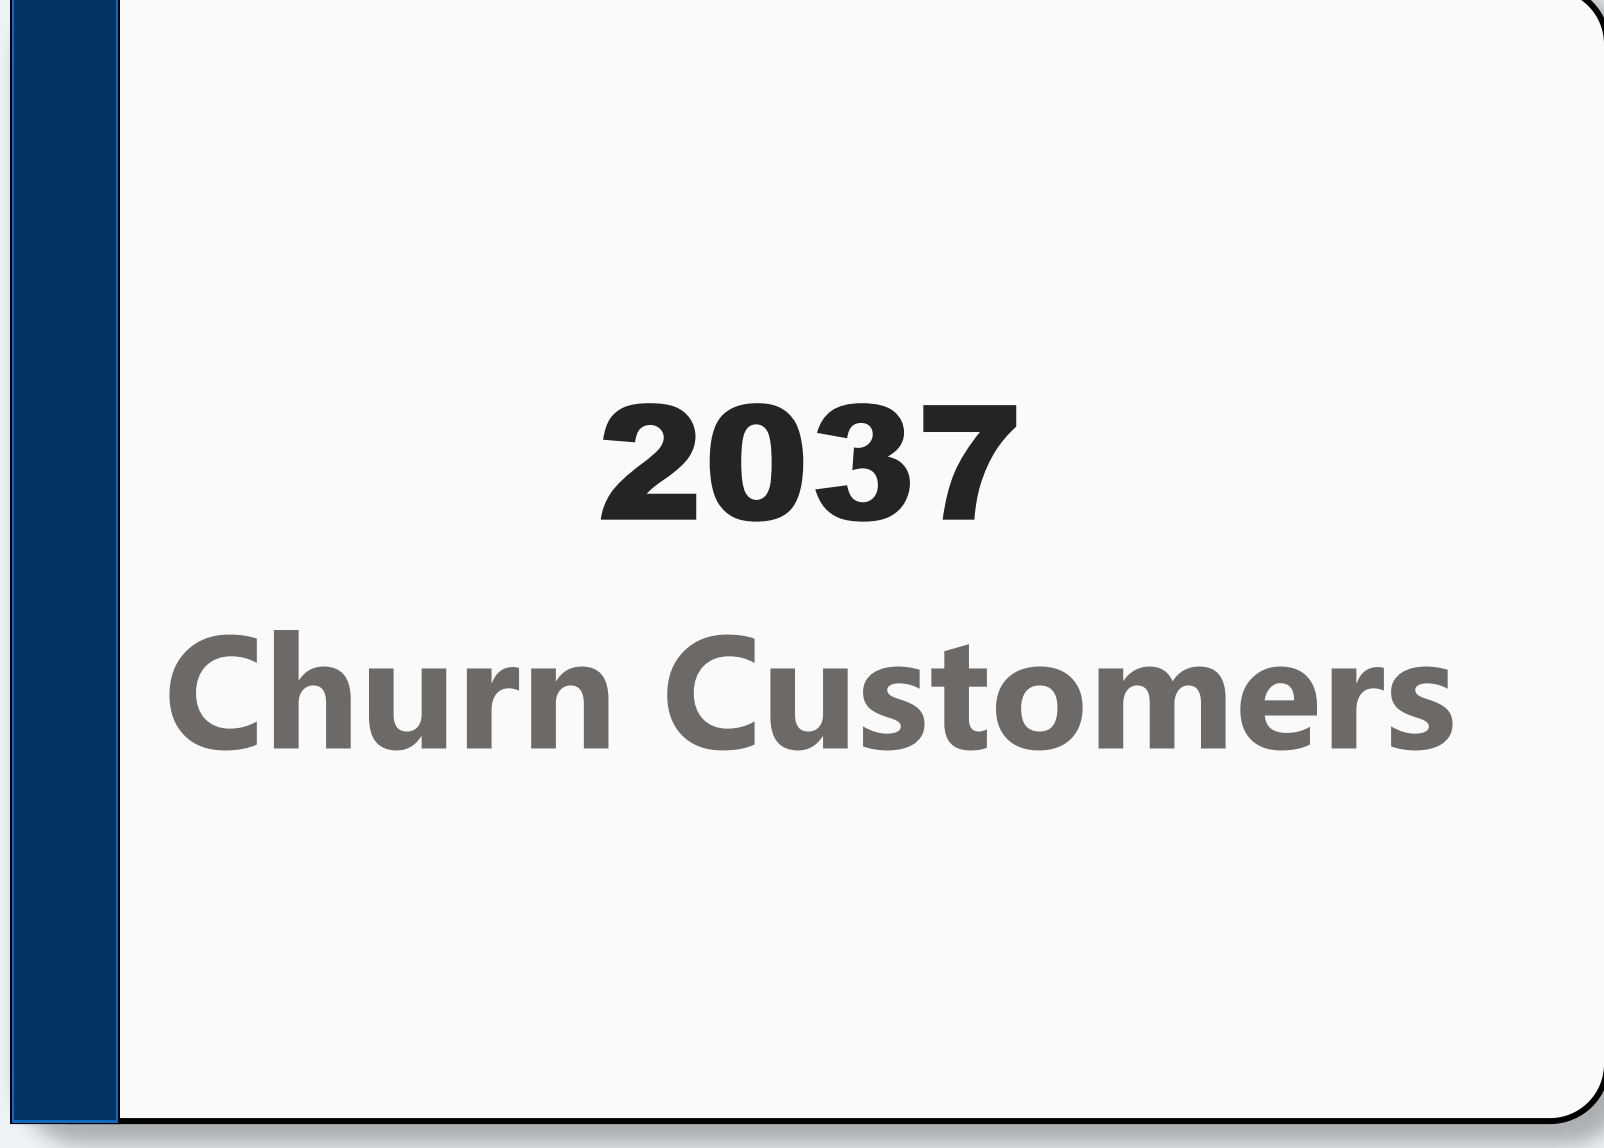

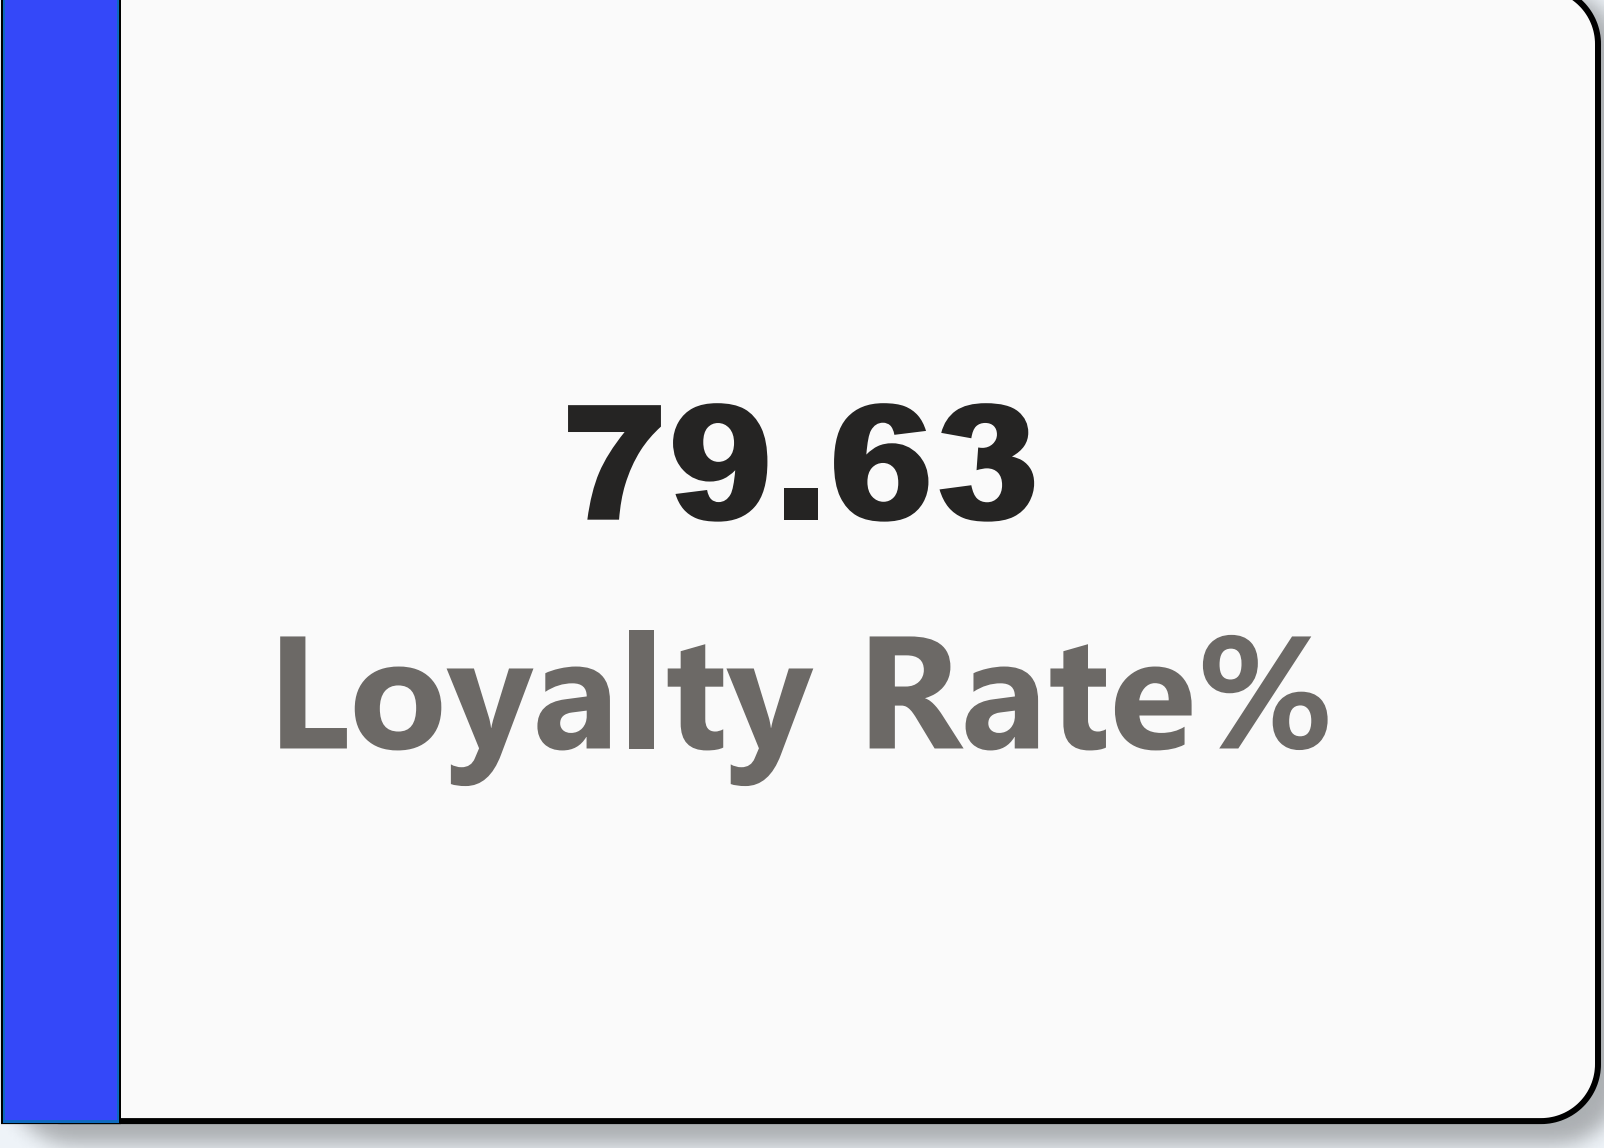

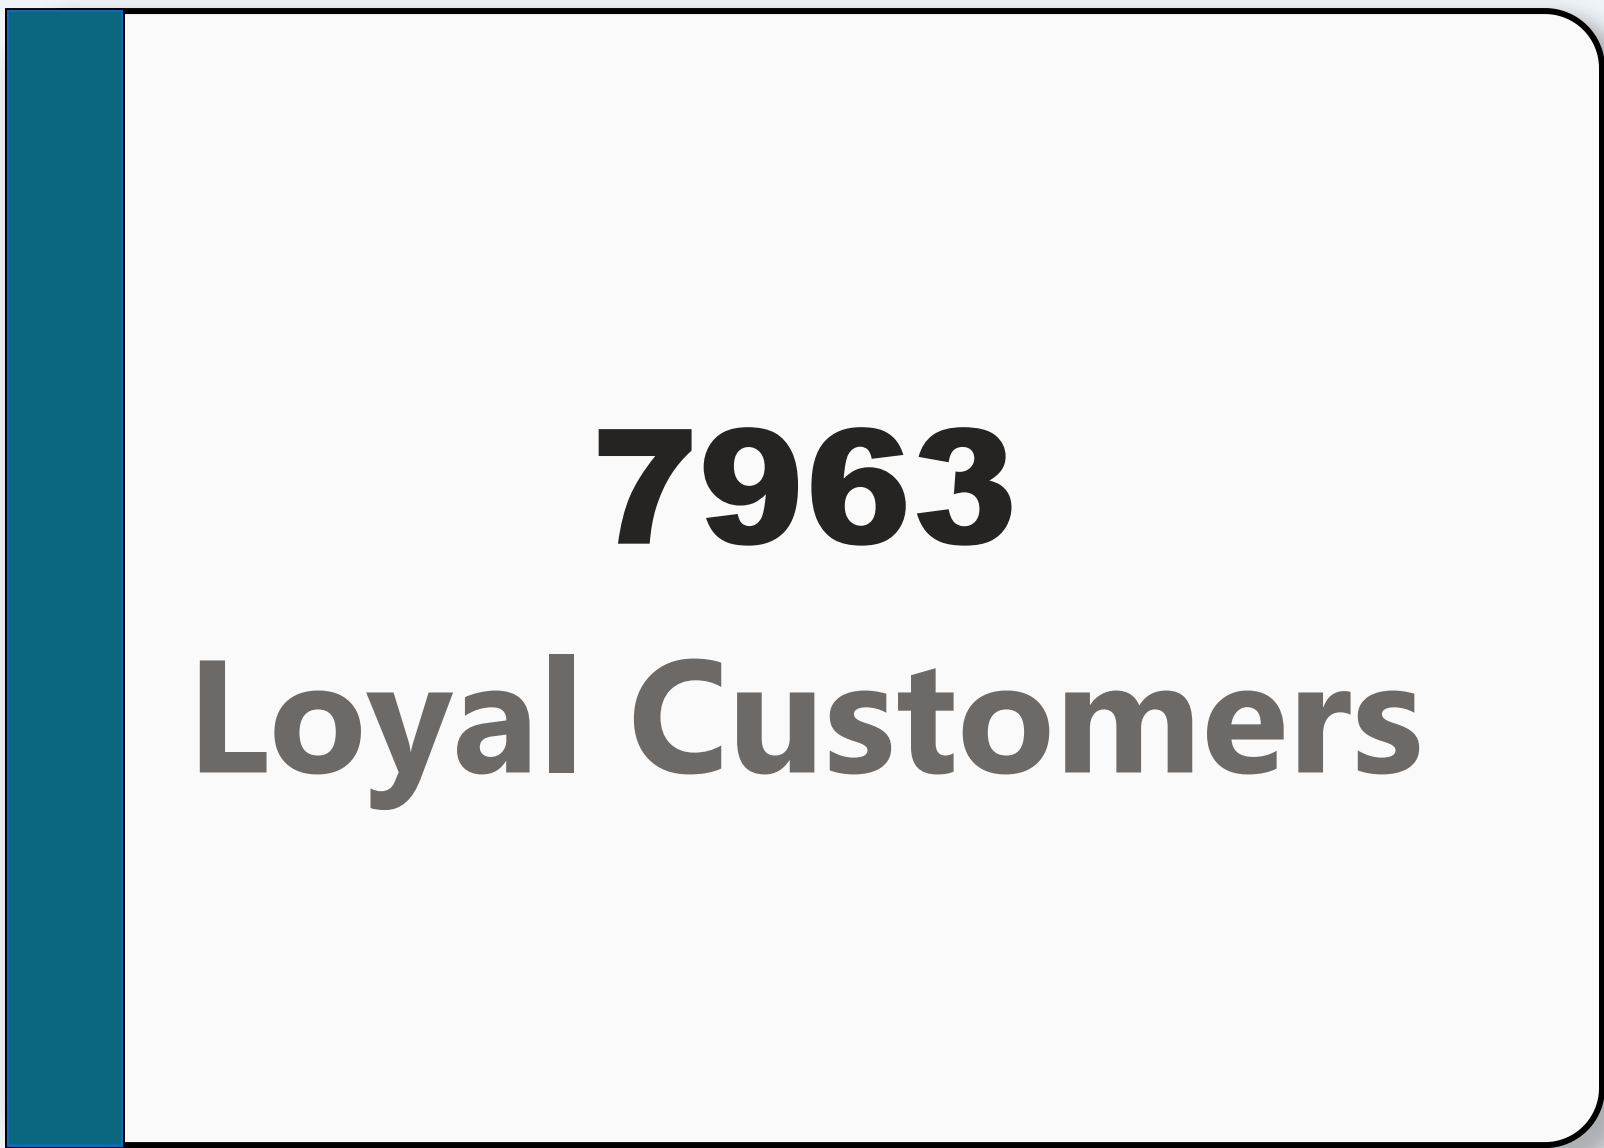

Age Group

All

Geography

All

Bank Customer Churn Analysis Dashboard

Active Members

All

Gender

All

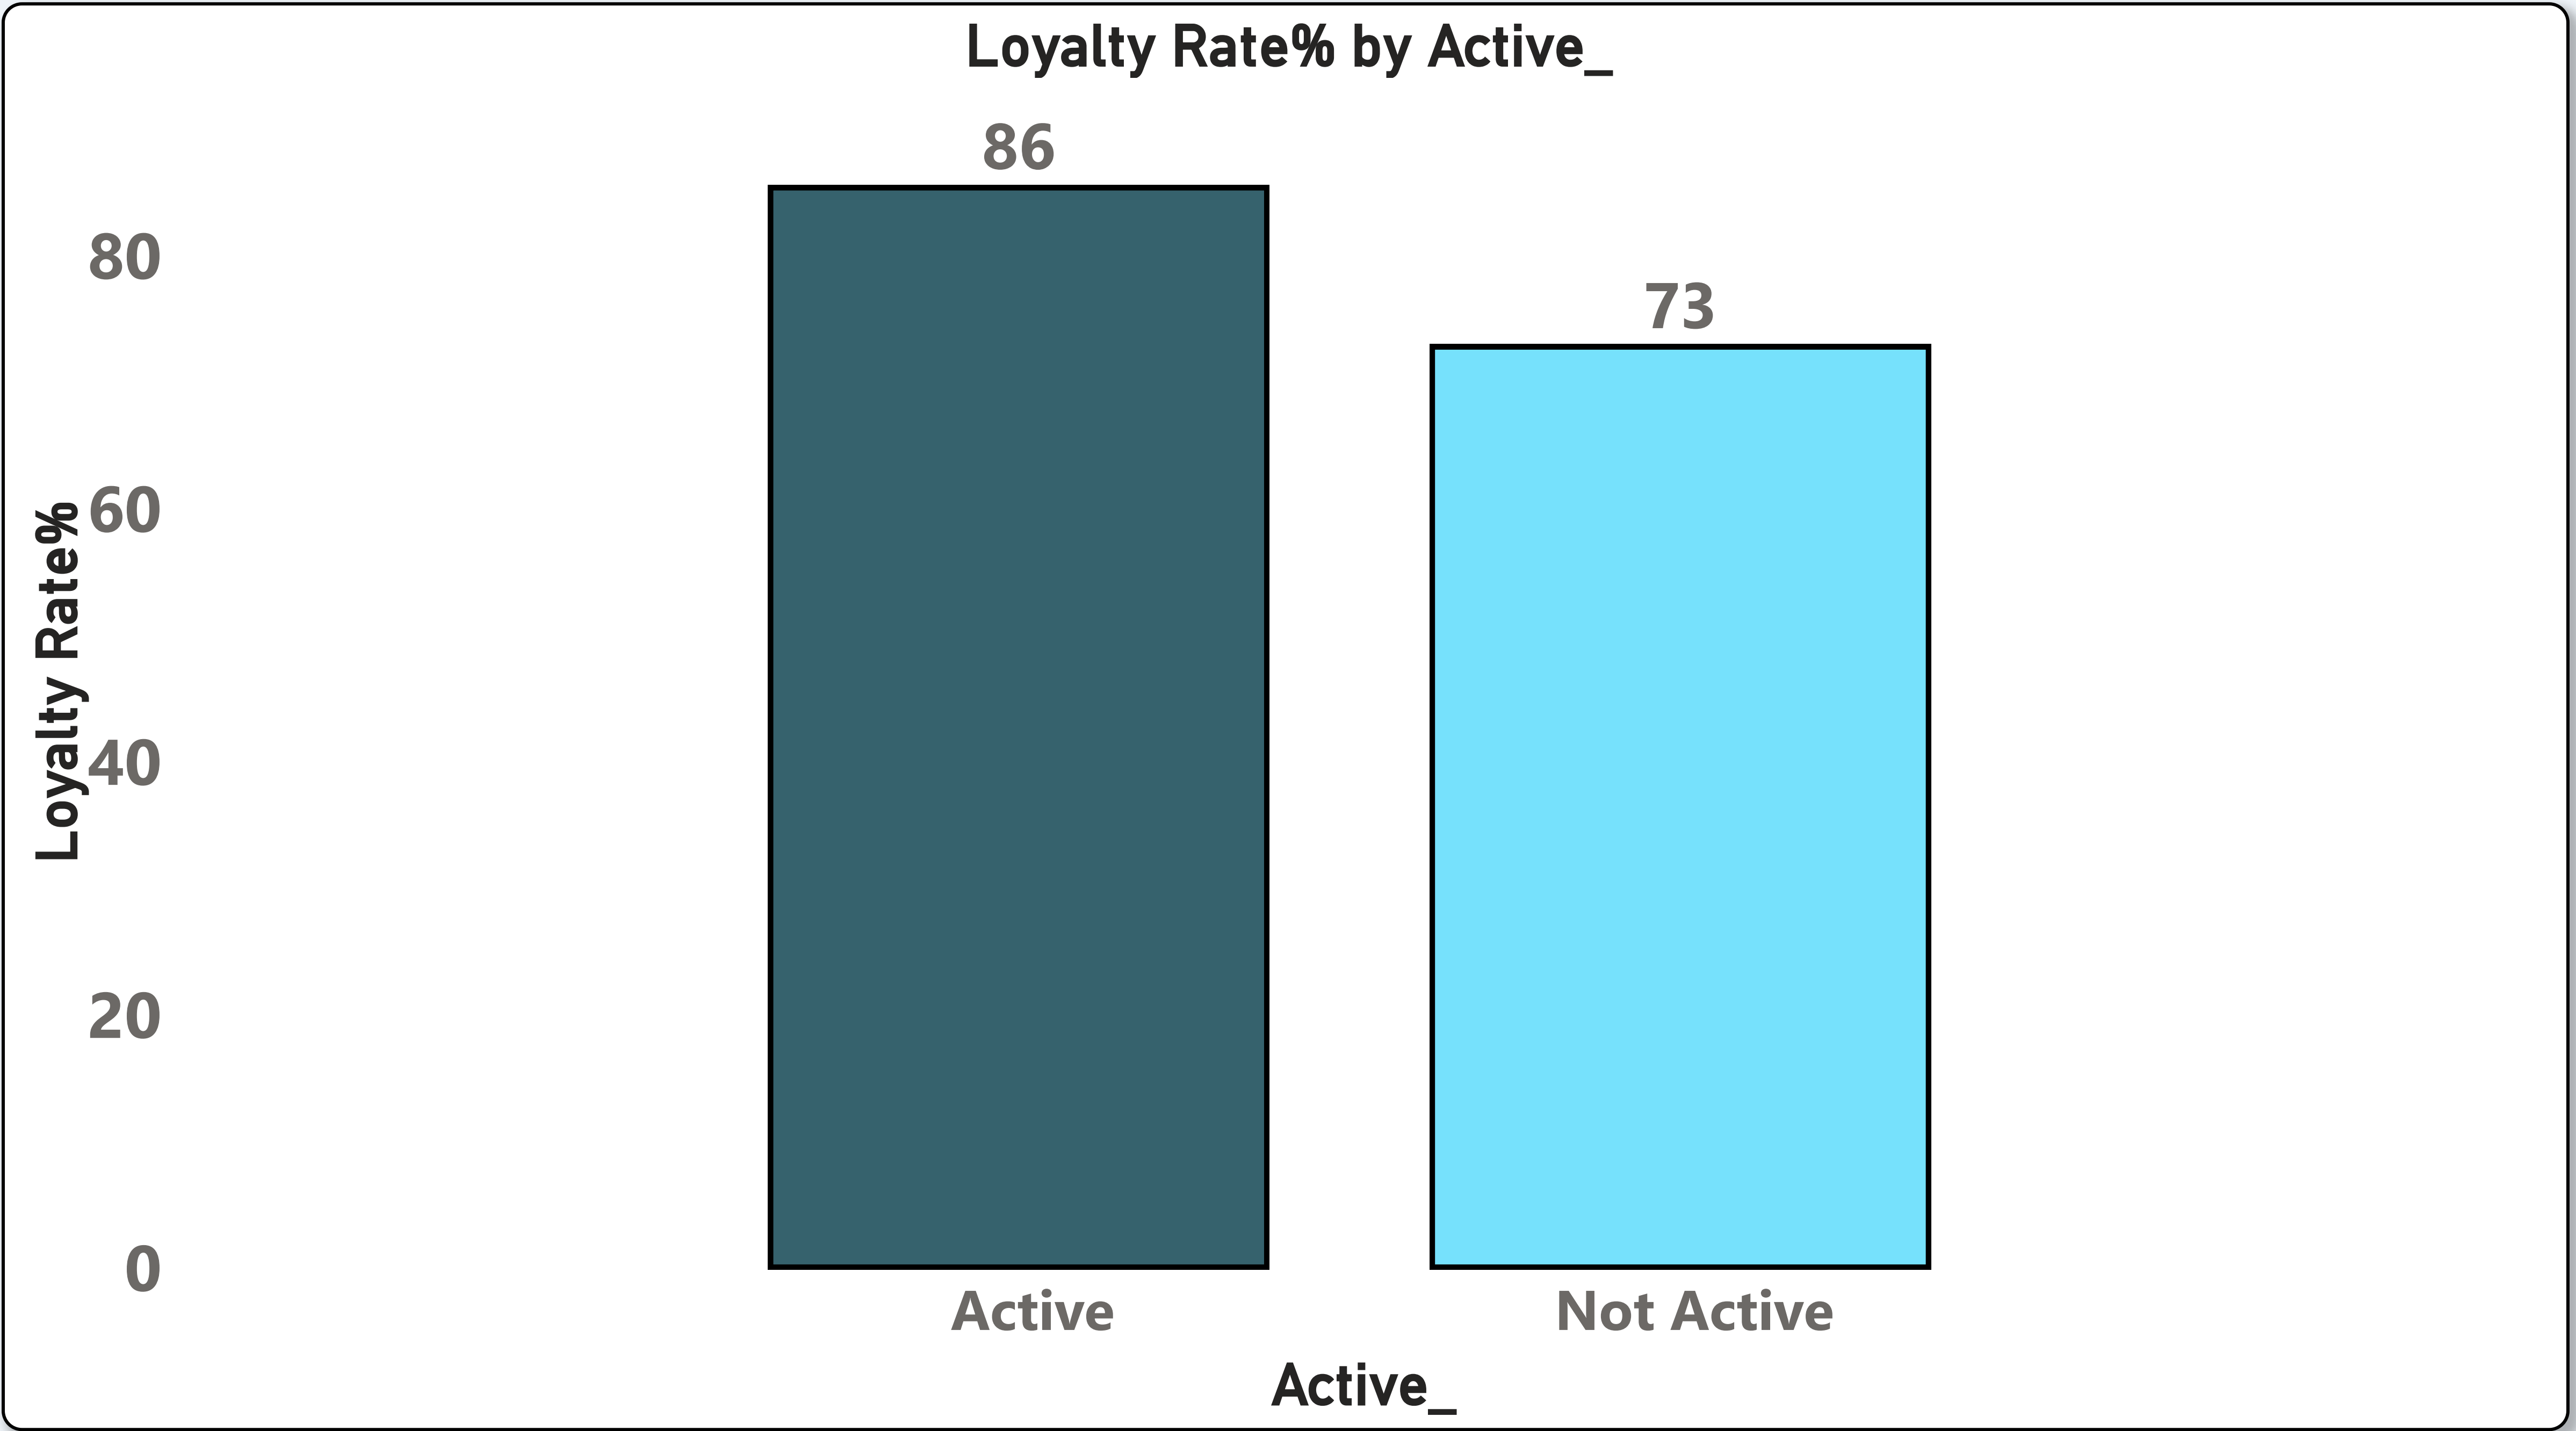

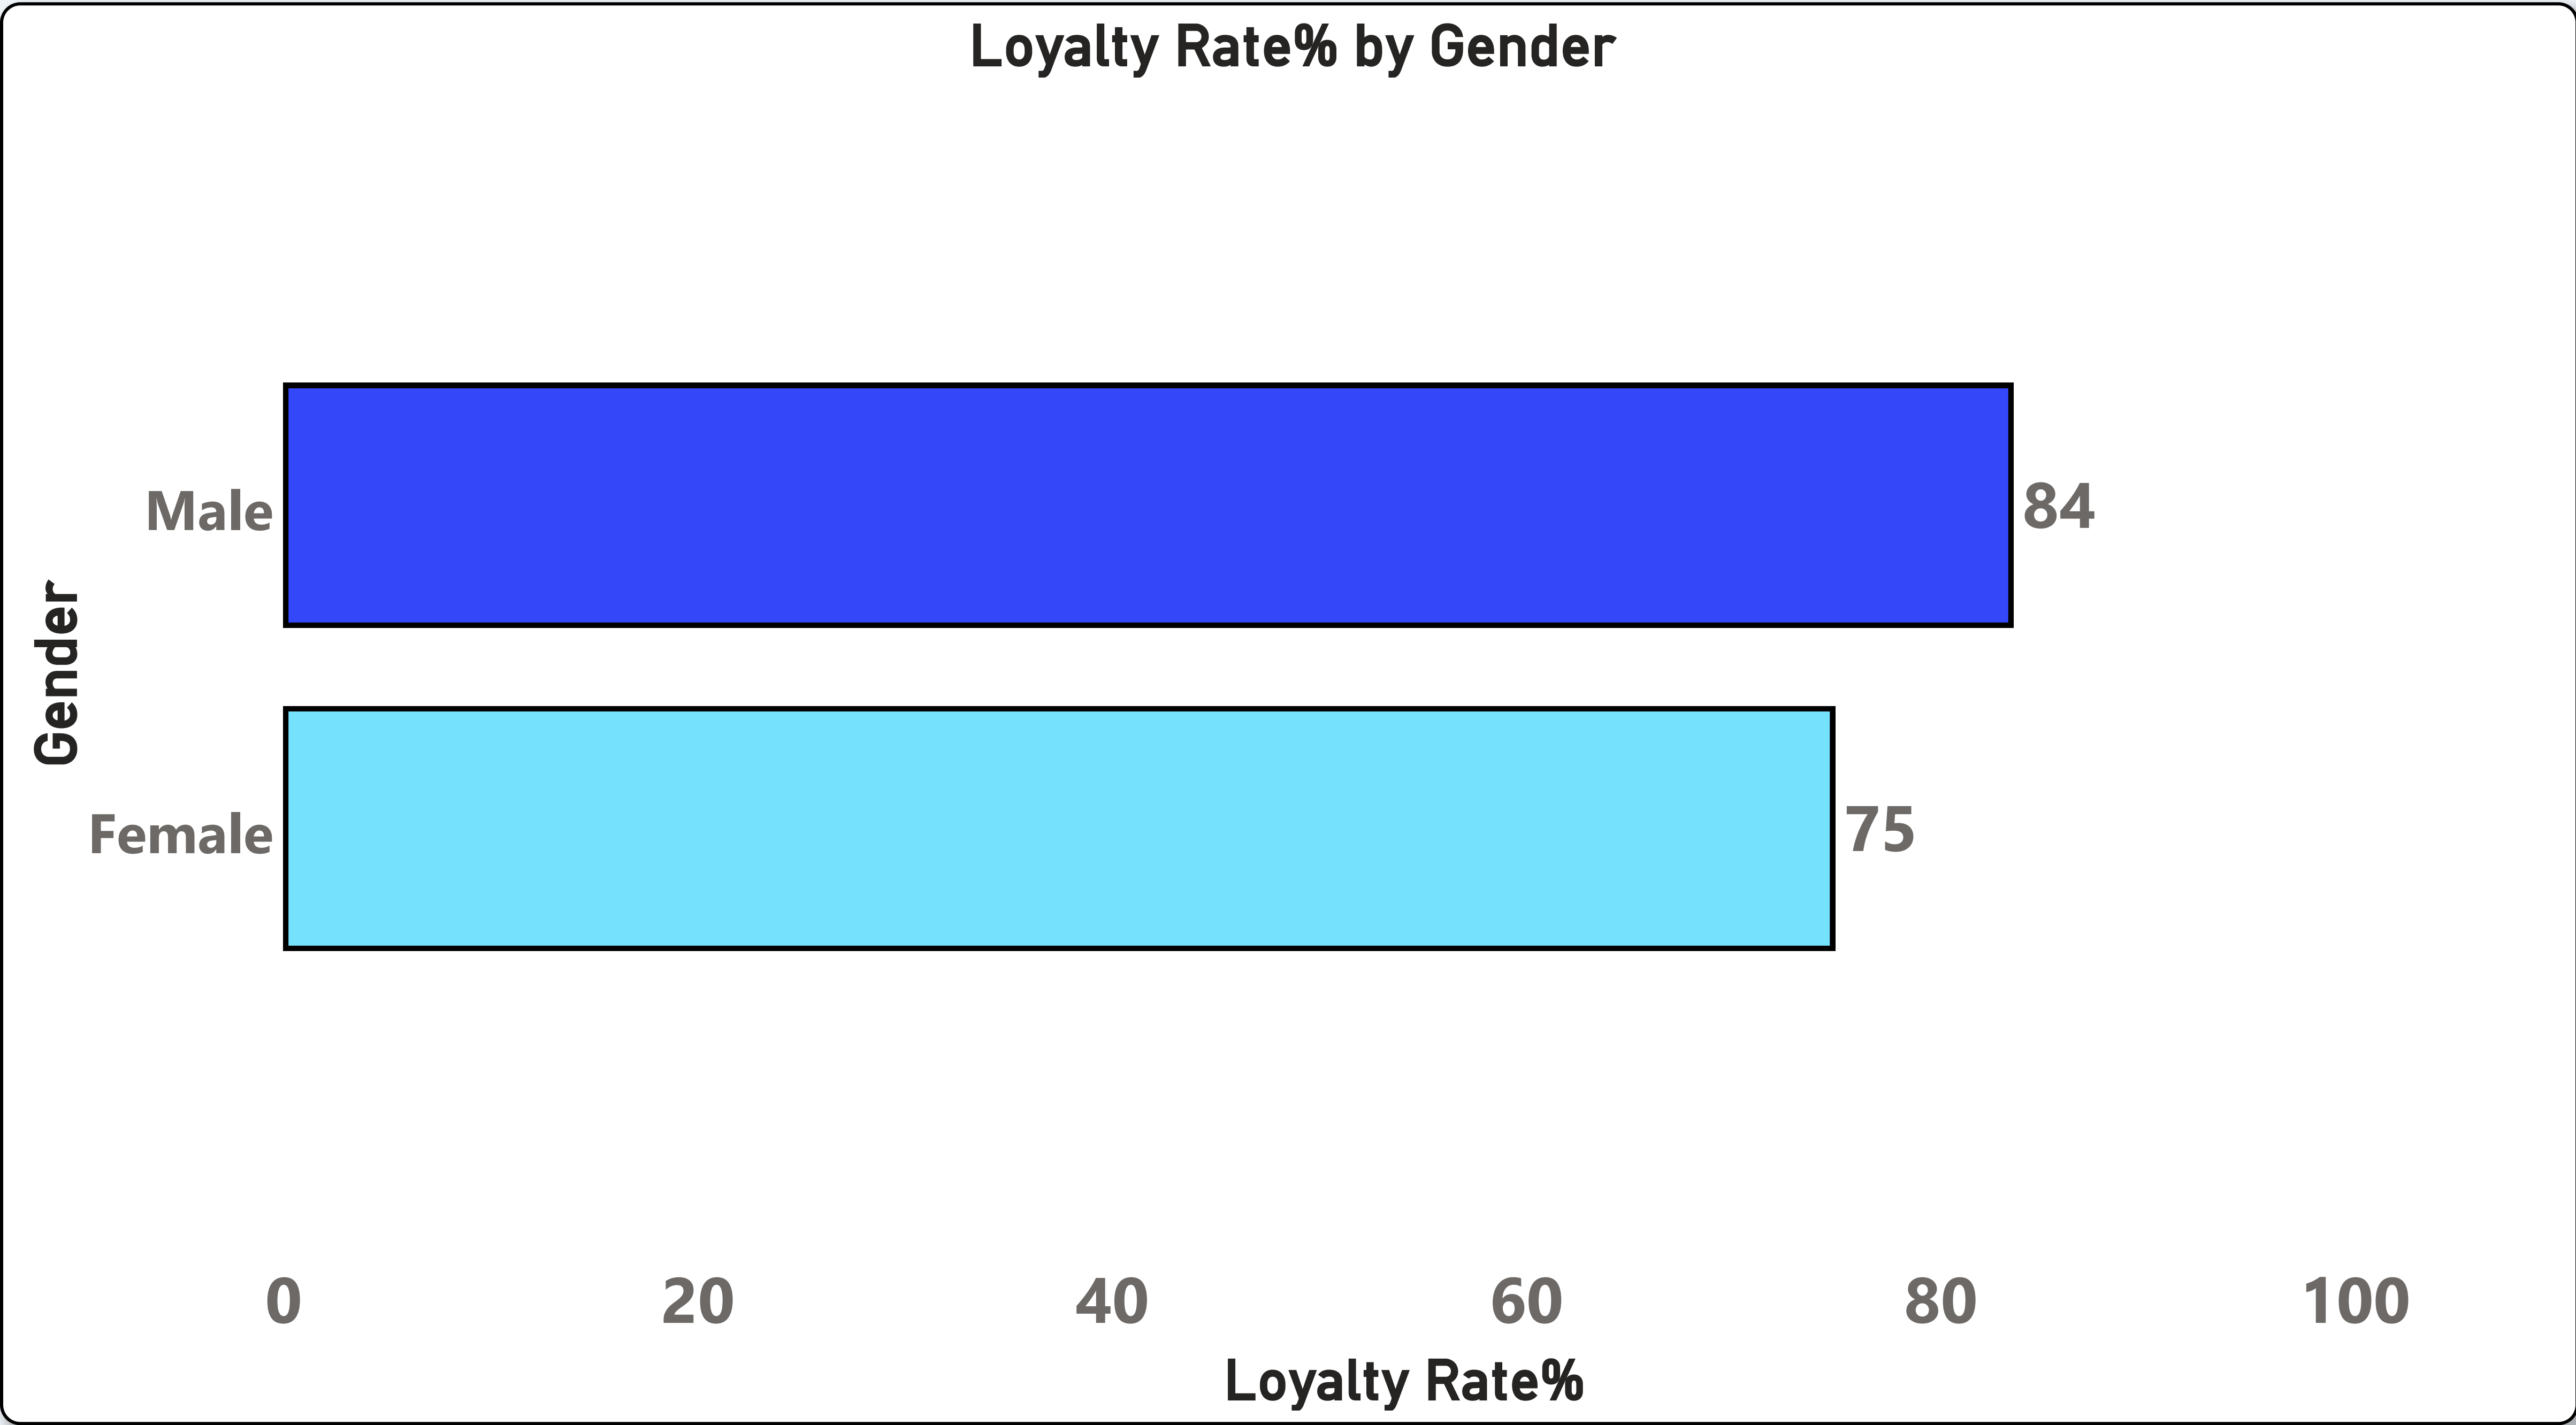

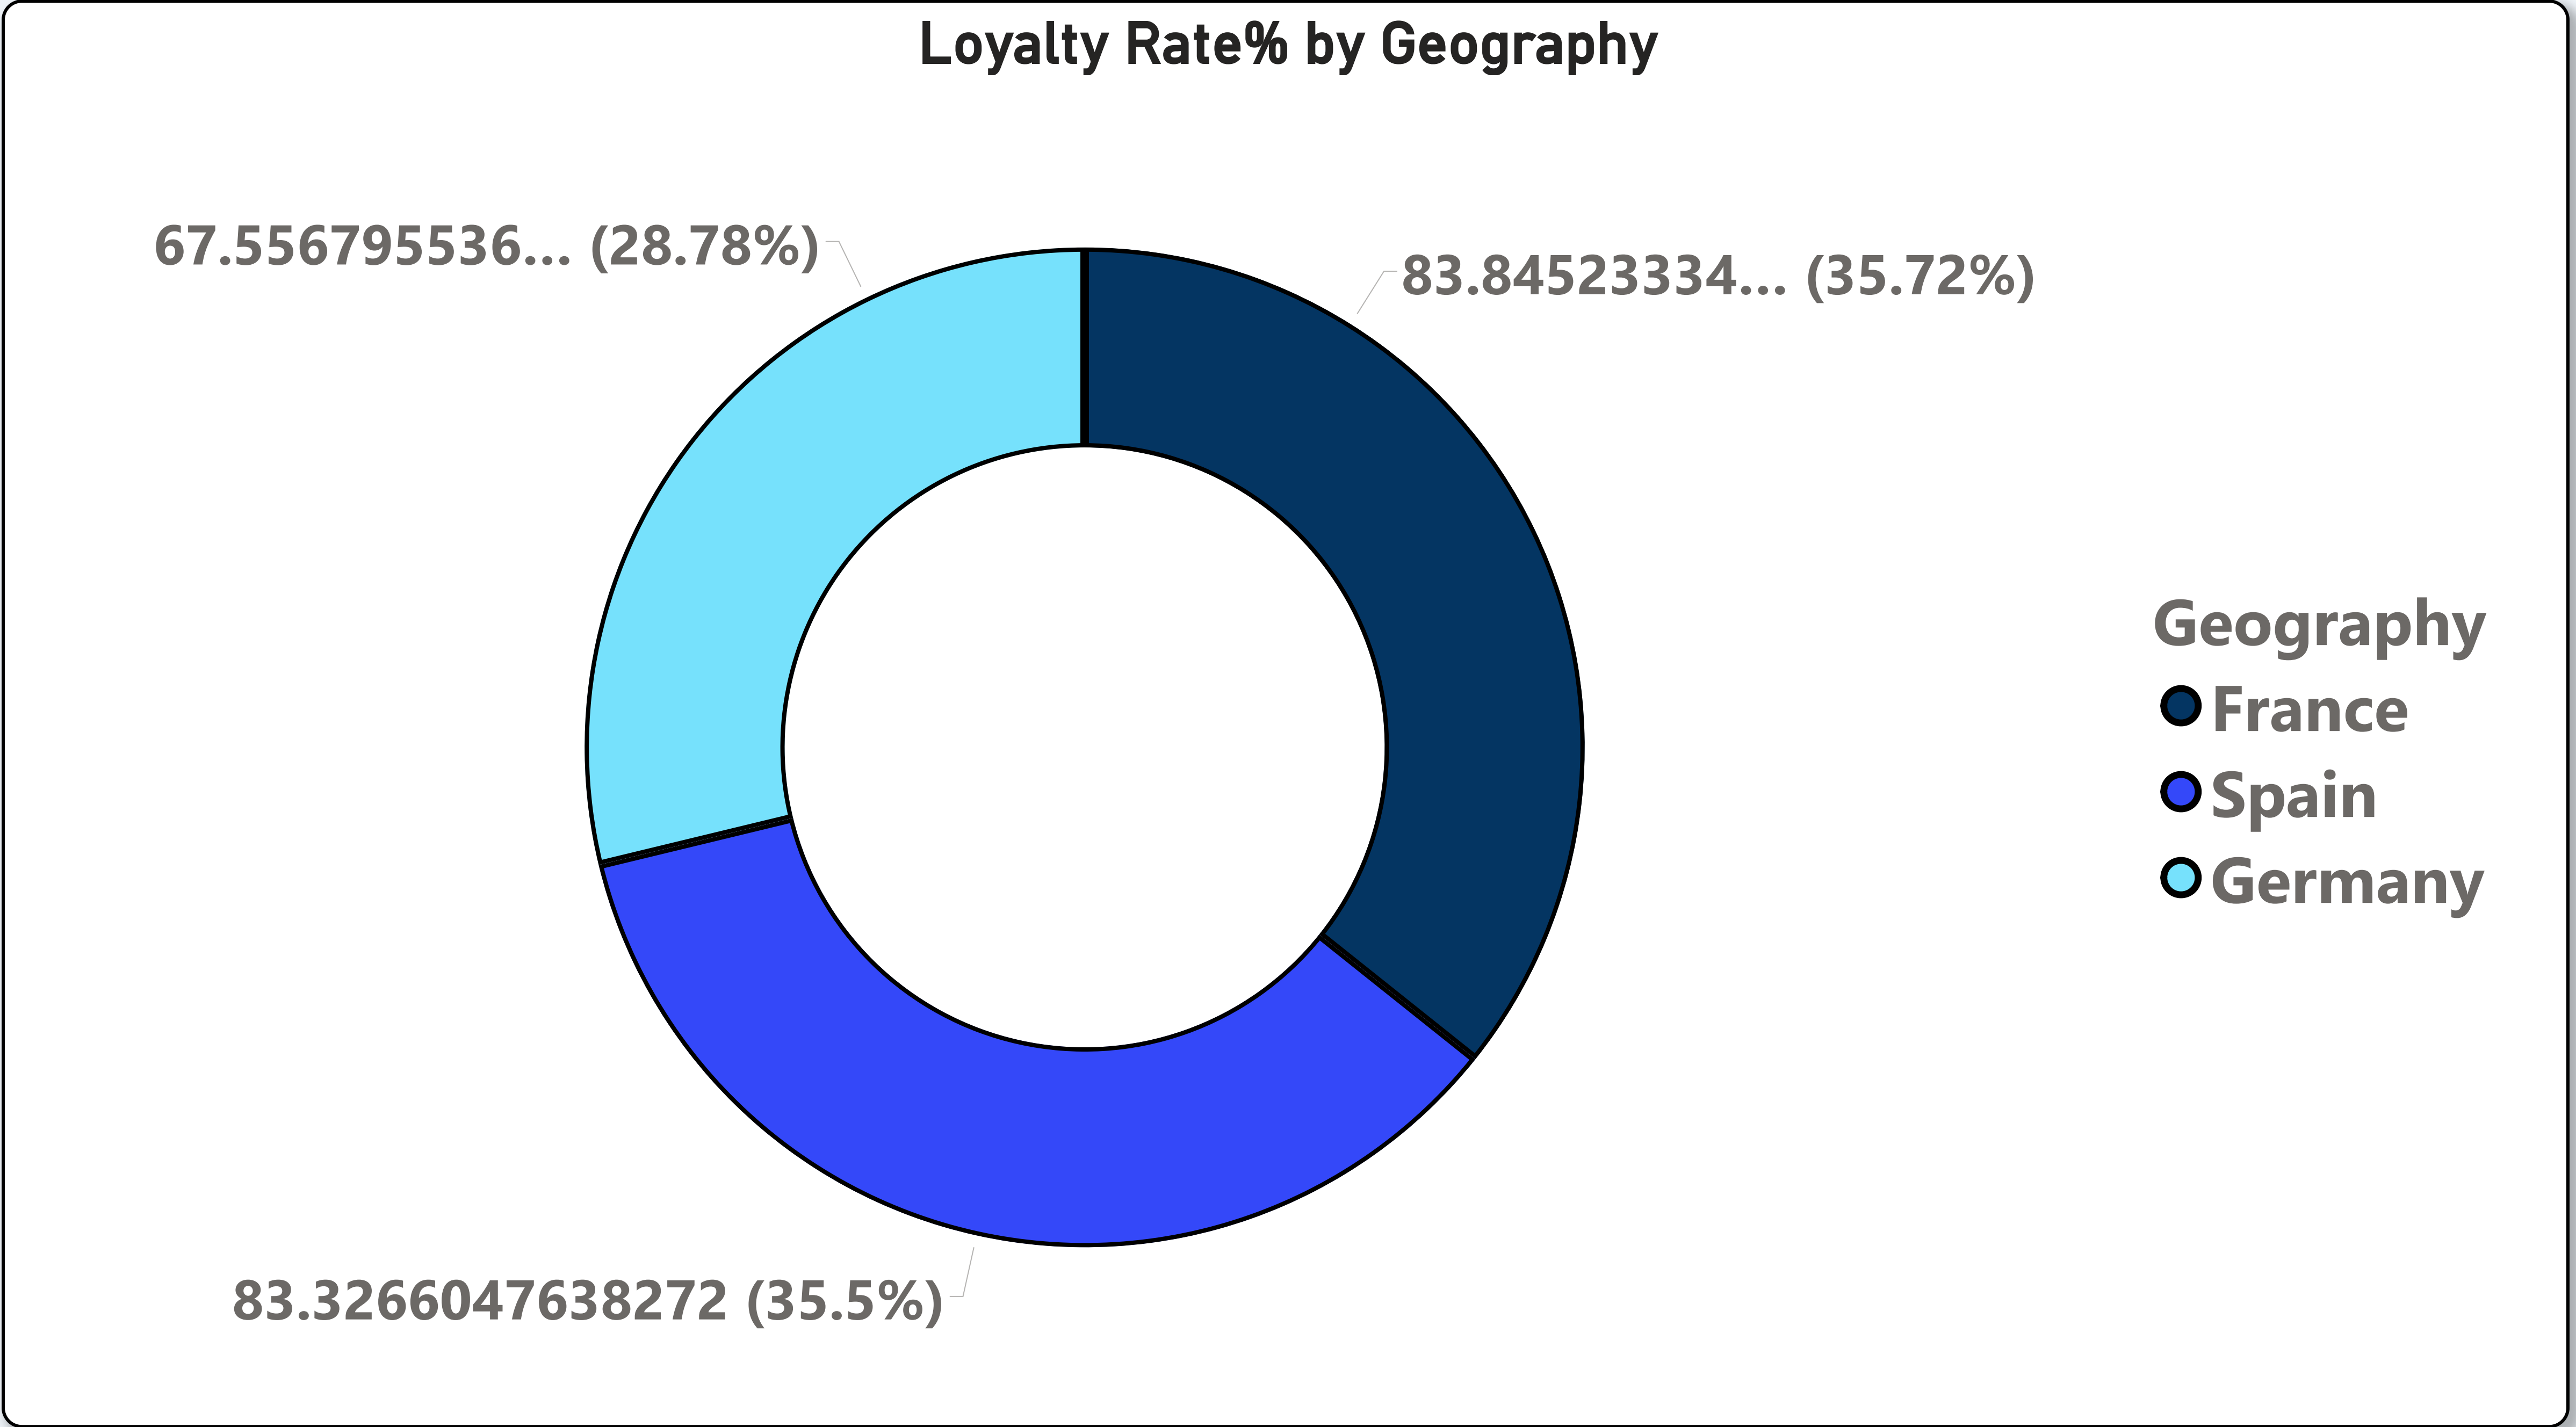

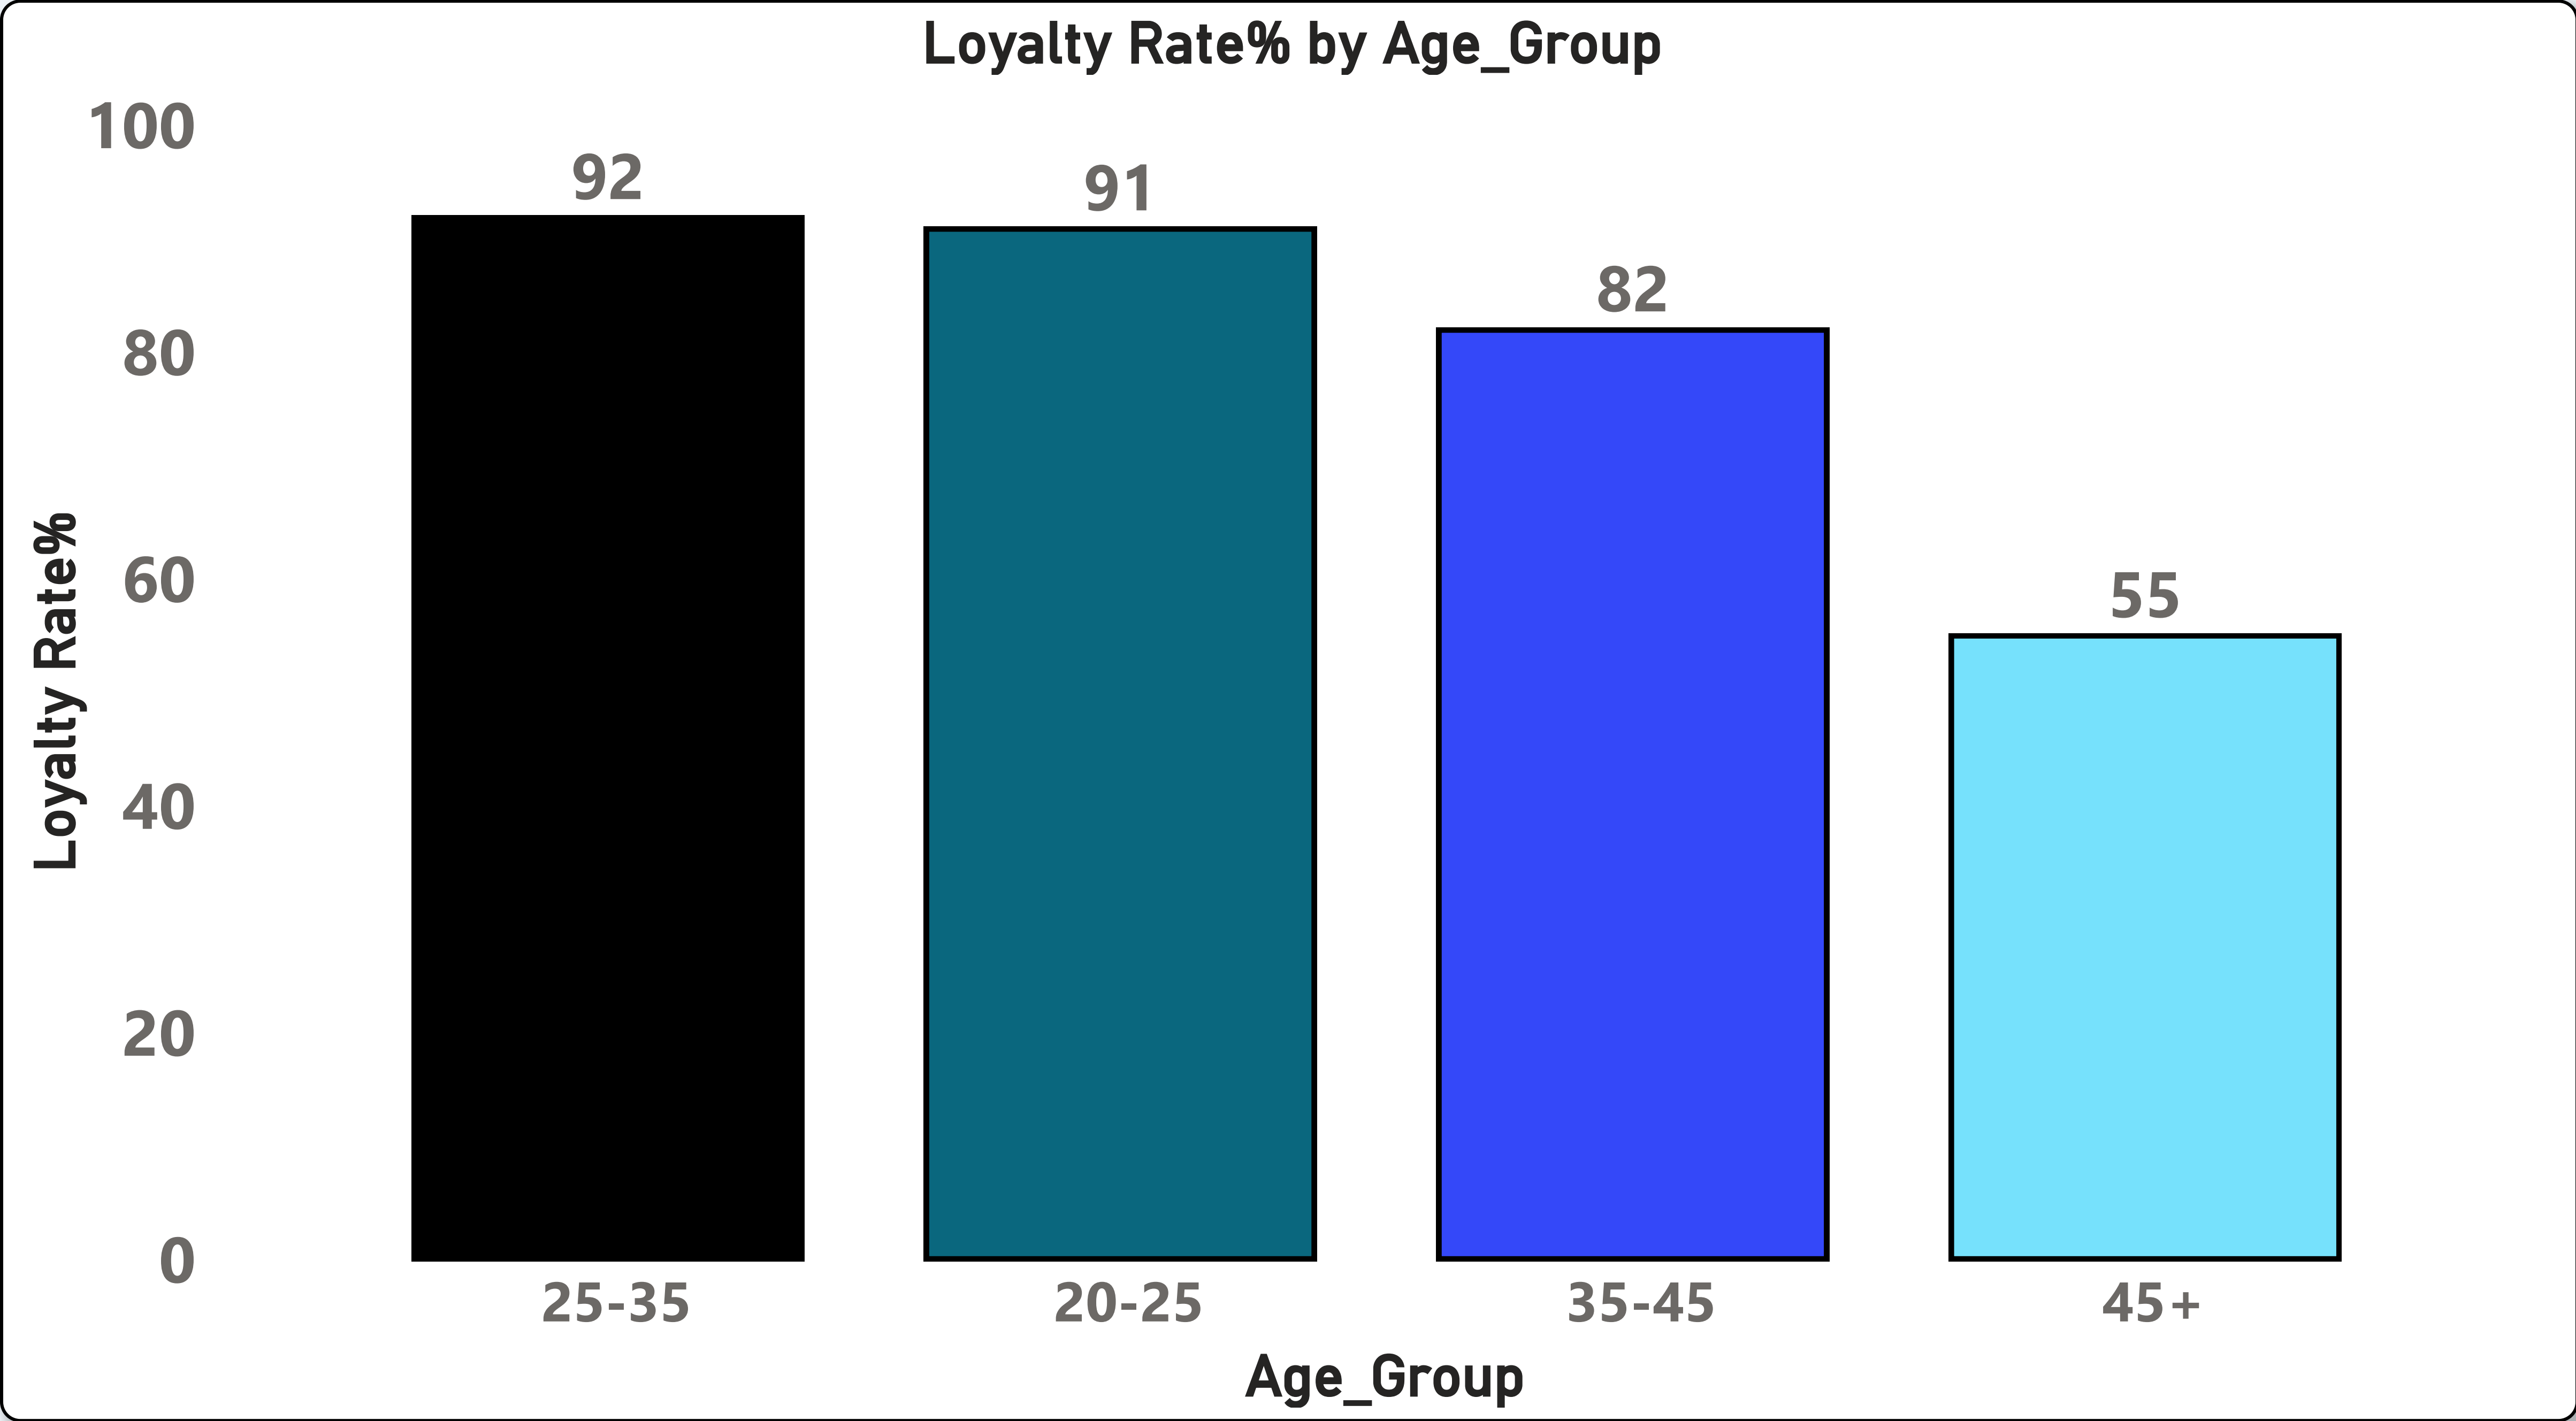

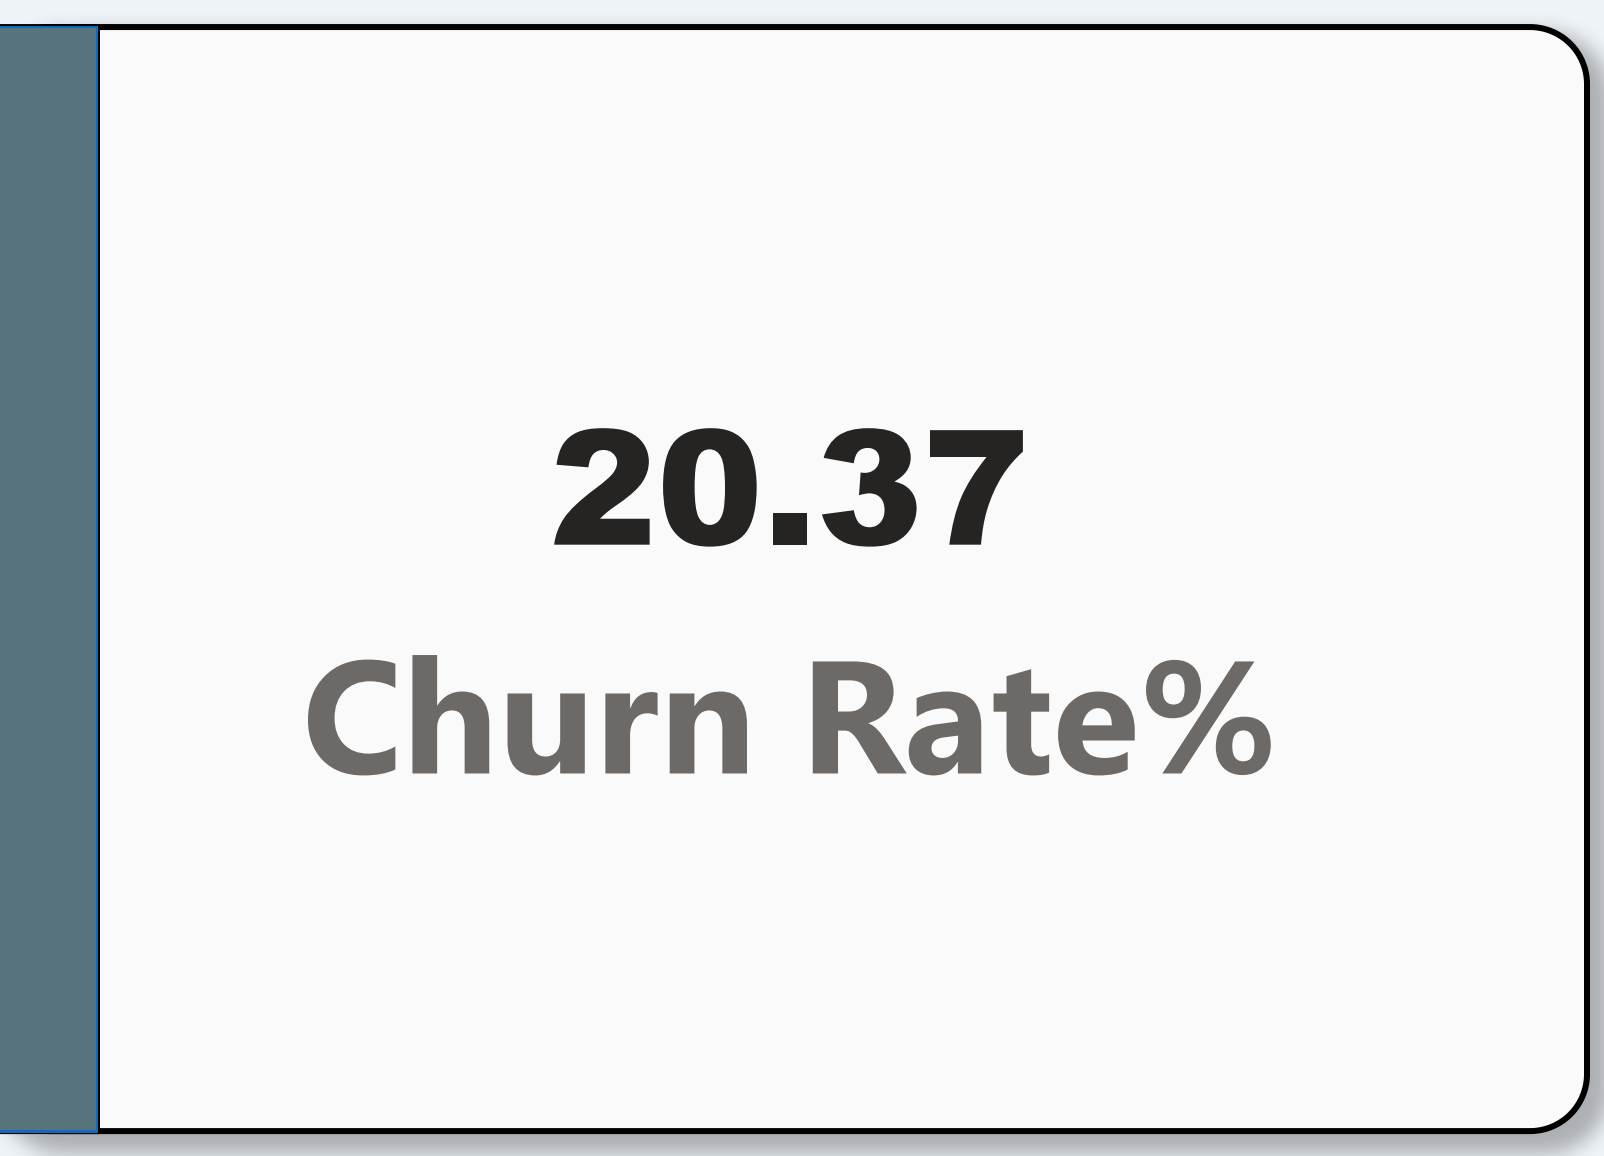

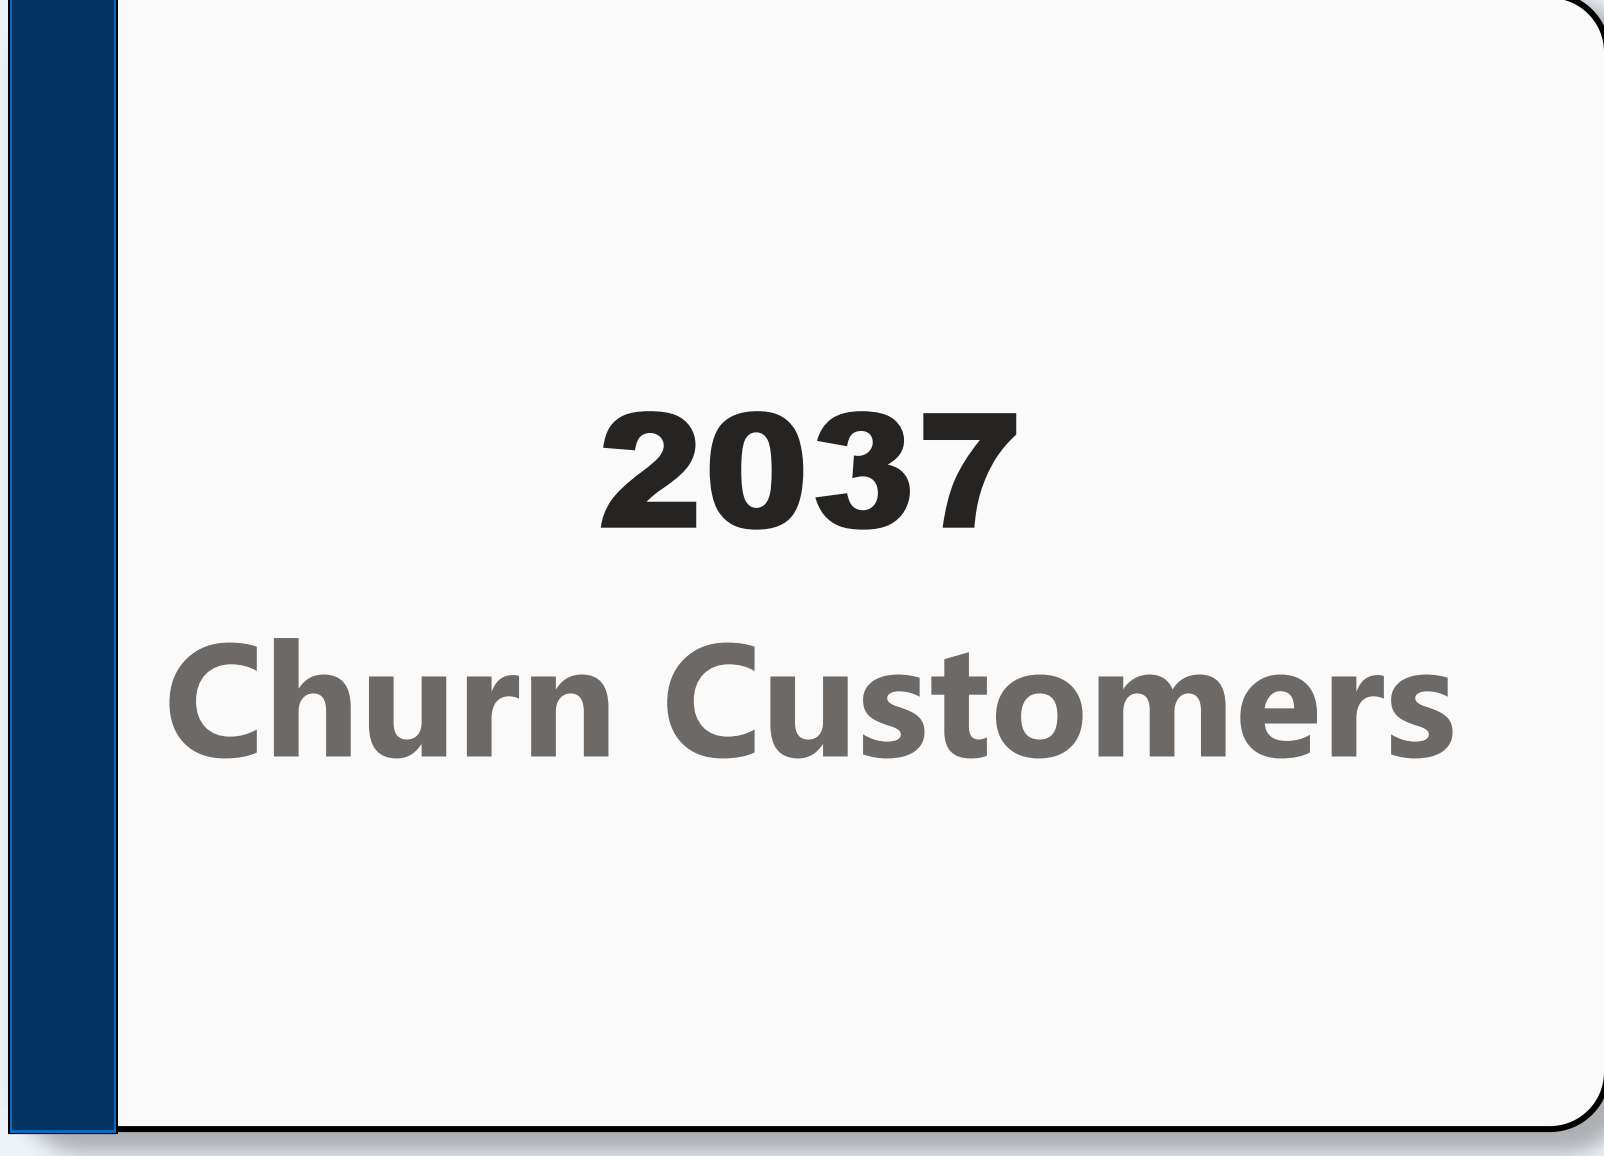

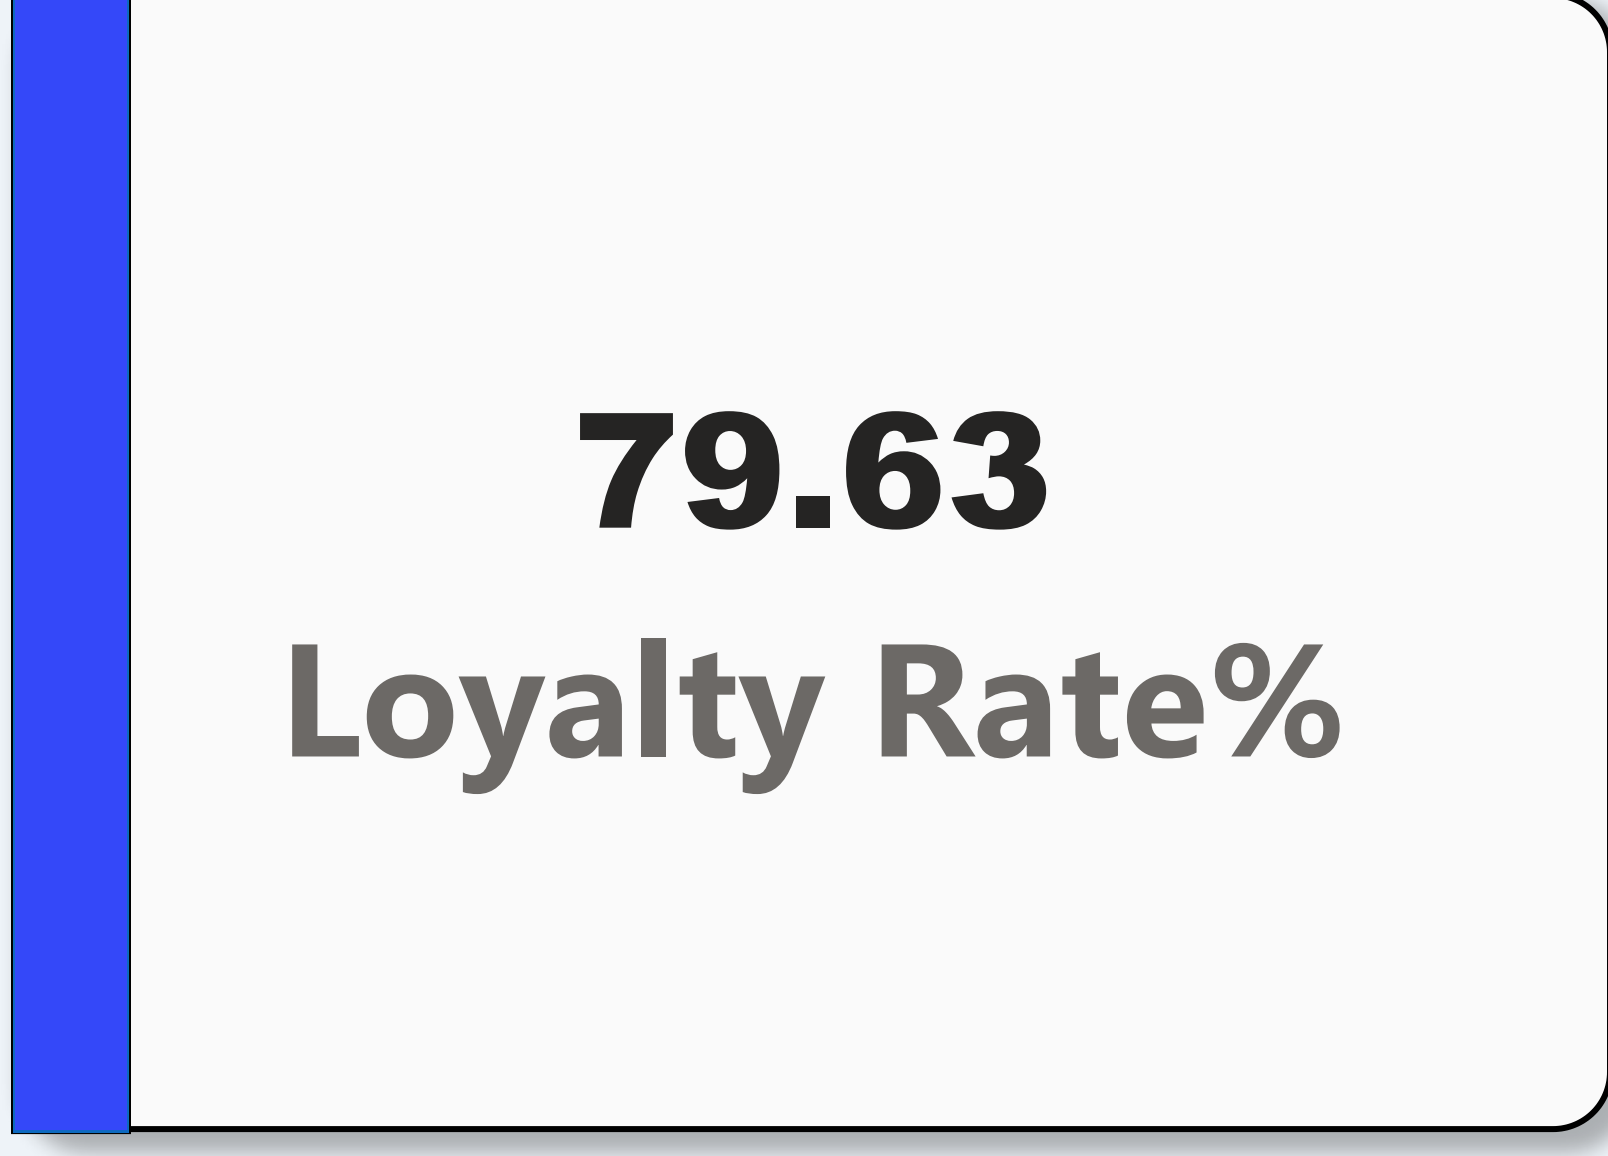

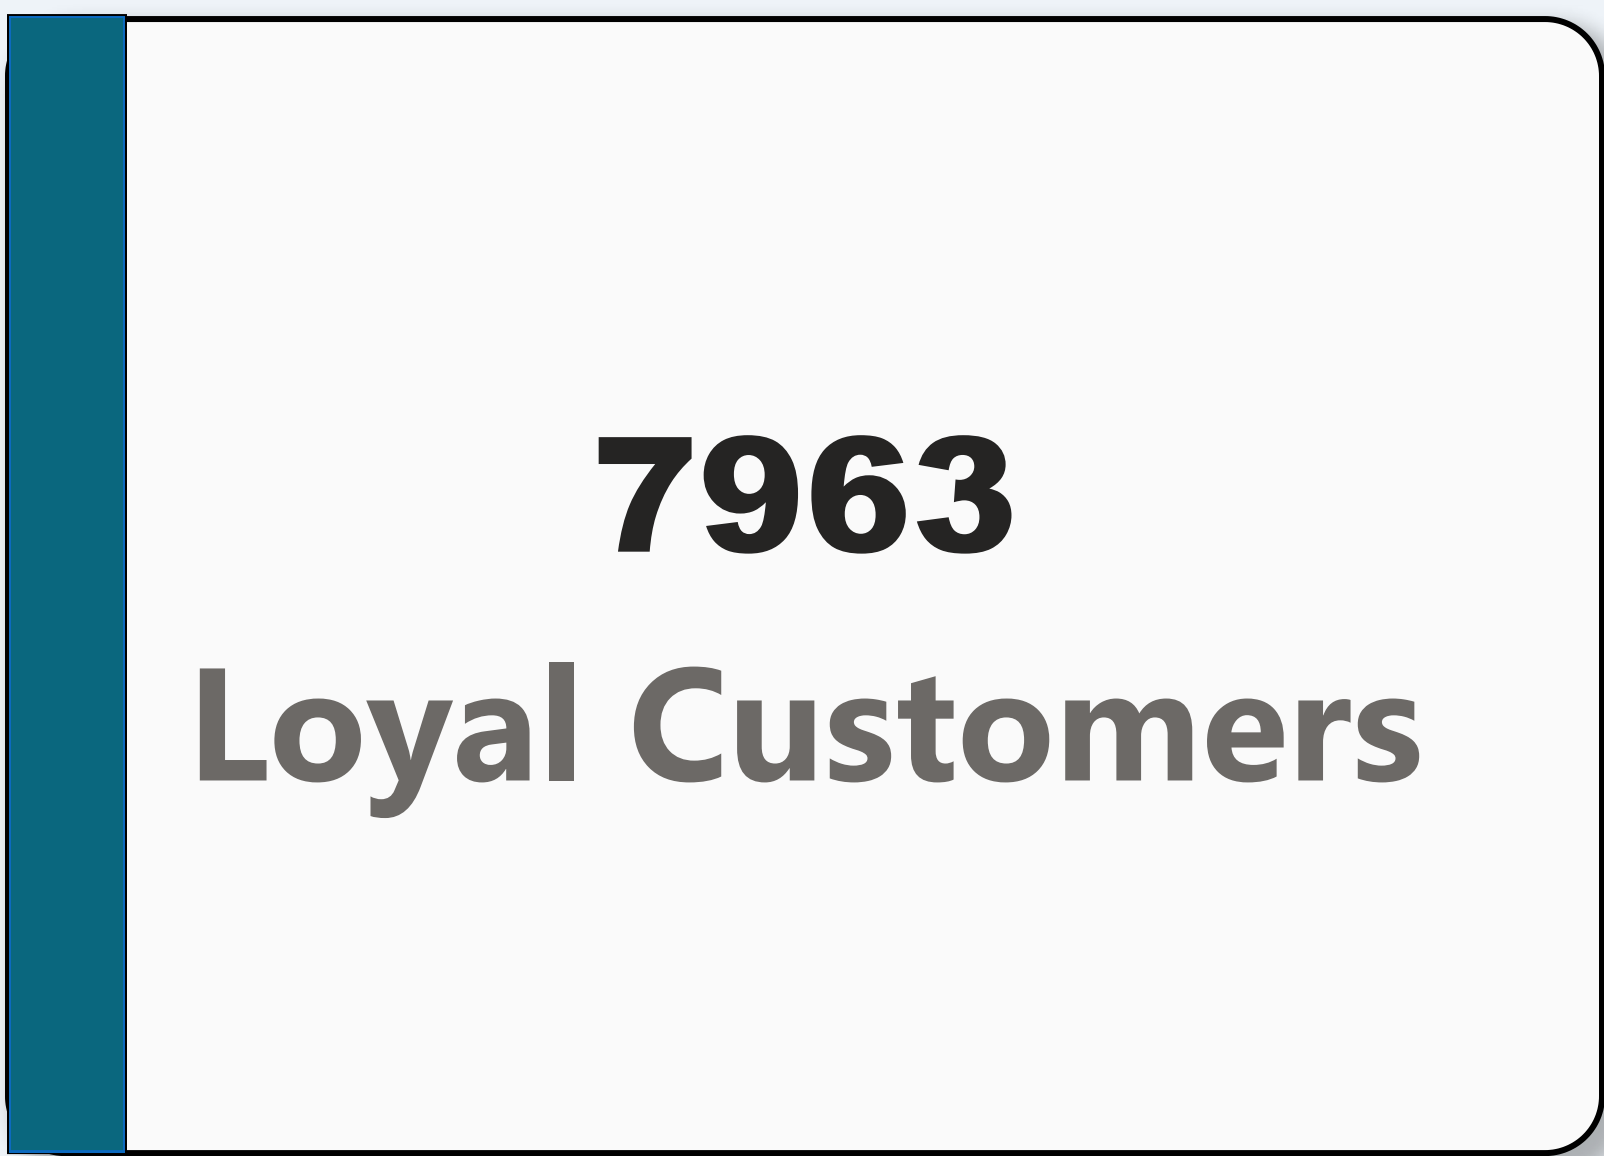

Age Group

All

Geography

All

Bank Customer Loyalty Analysis Dashboard

Key Insights

1. Age is the strongest churn factor:

Customers aged 45+ have the highest churn rate (44.62%).
Customers aged 25–35 show the lowest churn rate (7.76%).

2. Customer activity significantly impacts retention:

Inactive customers have a churn rate of 26.85%.
Active customers have a churn rate of only 14.27%.

3. Geography influences customer churn:

Germany records the highest churn rate (32.44%).
France and Spain show relatively lower churn rates (16–17%).

4. Female customers are more likely to churn

Female churn rate: 25.07%
Male churn rate: 16.46%

5. Overall customer retention remains strong:

Loyalty Rate: 79.63%
Churn Rate: 20.37%

Business Recommendations

1.Customer Retention Strategy

Launch targeted retention campaigns for customers aged 45+.
Increase engagement initiatives for inactive customers.

2.Regional Focus

Conduct detailed analysis of customer dissatisfaction in Germany.
Introduce region-specific loyalty programs.

3.Customer Engagement

Promote personalized offers and rewards to increase activity levels.
Strengthen customer support for high-risk customer segments.

4.Loyalty Enhancement

Develop loyalty and rewards programs to improve long-term retention.
Identify customers with high churn probability and proactively engage them.